CHIPS 1952

Best of luck
to a swell kid.
Kim "Suede"
Swanson

Dear Toby,
Best of luck to the little girl who can always take a joke. I'll miss "flippin"
your margins, just as I'll miss your good old Blue Island. It sure seems odd to think that next year we won't be here.
Best always, Toby,

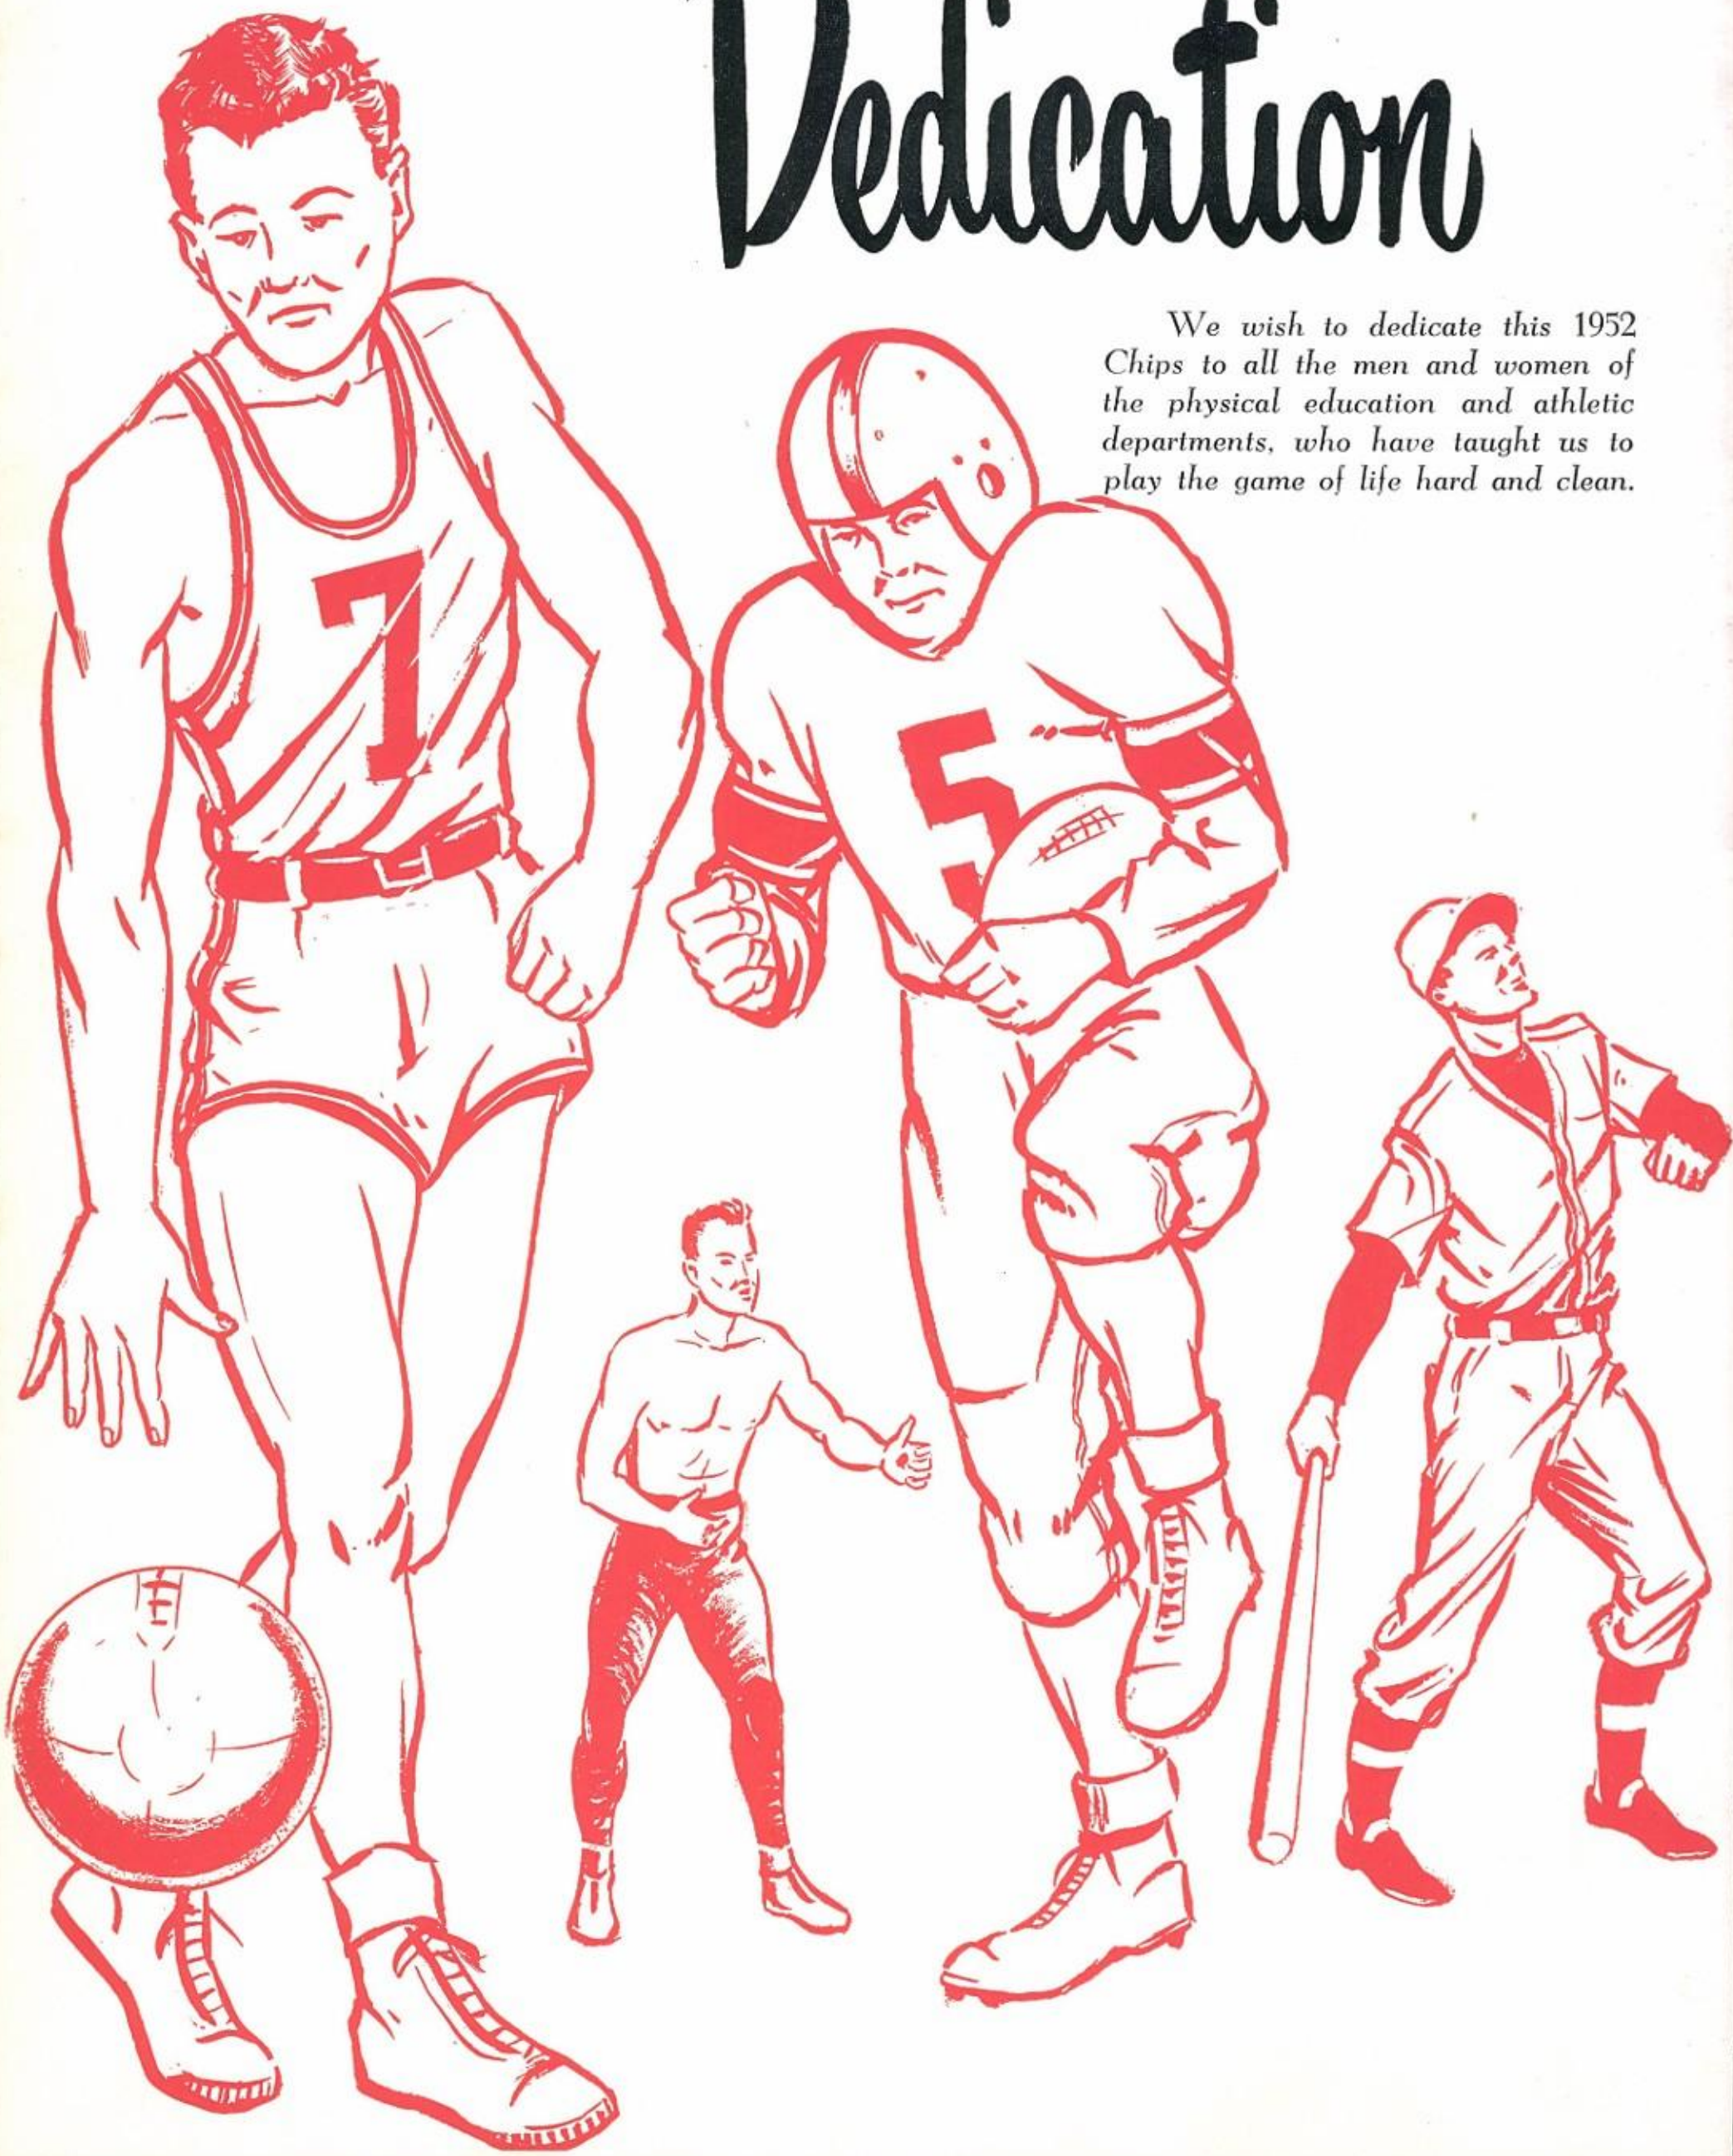
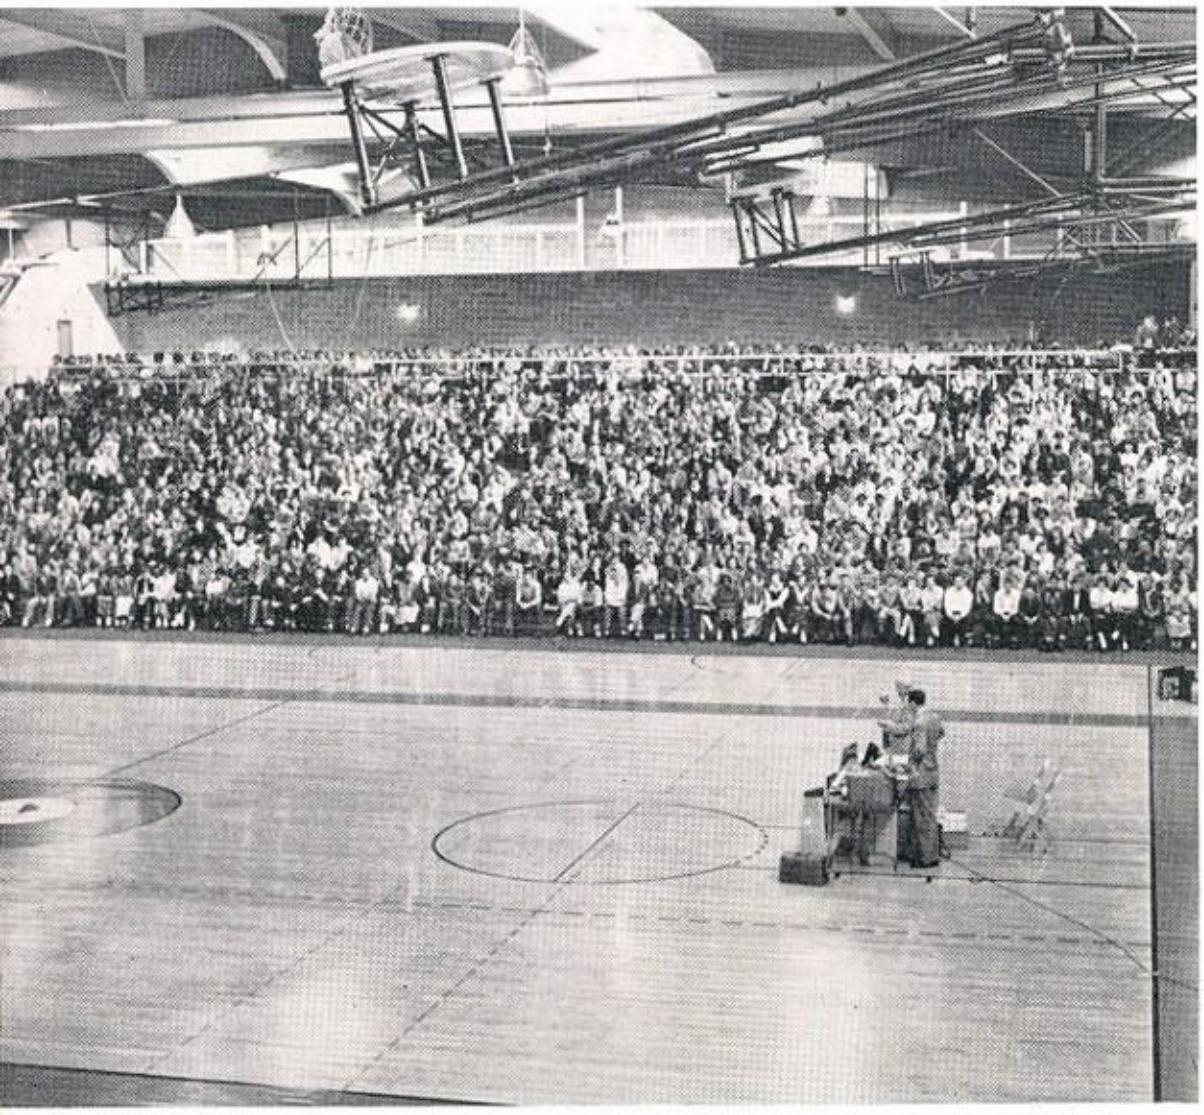
Dedication

We wish to dedicate this 1952 Chips to all the men and women of the physical education and athletic departments, who have taught us to play the game of life hard and clean.





DR. H. L. RICHARDS

Absent from us for a while in the service of his Country . . .

Yet ever present in our hearts as an inspiration to keep on working for the good of Community High . . .

Dr. H. L. Richards has returned to lead us toward a better and finer future for all.

SUPERINTENDENT

MRS. RUTH RICHARDS

Enthusiastically carrying on her husband's work while he was recalled to the service of his Country . . .
Understanding in all matters, large or small . . .
A close friend to everyone . . .

ACTING SUPERINTENDENT

Seated: Gilbert A. Roll, Member; Henry L. Duff, President; Mrs. Ruth Richards, Acting Superintendent; Leslie I. McCord, Secretary; George M. Peterson, Member.

Standing: Elbert T. Smith, Member; Franklin Klein, Attorney; Charles B. Price, Acting Assistant Superintendent.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Lieut. Col. Harold L. Richards
U.S. Air Force

These members of the Board of Education, generously donating their time and services to the tremendous task of planning the policies of the school, again this year have proved themselves able and competent by providing our fine new gymnasium. In every way these men have shown that their one thought is to make possible a better, finer, and more complete educational program for all the students.

Familiar Faces In New Places

CHARLES B. PRICE
B.S., Bradley University; M.A., University of Chicago. Acting Assistant Superintendent.

This year finds Mr. Price in a new and important position, that of acting assistant superintendent. He is highly deserving of this honor, for in his many years of service to Community High he has never failed to do a good job, no matter in what position he was placed.

BIRT E. FROBISH
Ph.B., University of Chicago.
Principal of Old Main.

Seven hundred freshmen plus almost five hundred sophomores haven't made Mr. Frobish down hearted yet, for in his new position as principal of Old Main he offers every student that friendly consideration for which he is famous.

"Reliable" Is His Middle Name

Your room is a little cold? See Mr. Seyfarth.

The bus didn't stop to pick you up? See Mr. Seyfarth.

As chief engineer for Community High for twenty-eight years, Mr. Walter Seyfarth has solved these and countless other problems to the complete satisfaction of teachers and students. His only fault? He's camera shy and won't have a new picture made!

WALTER SEYFARTH
Chief Engineer

OUR CLASS PRINCIPALS

There was a time when we were scared to death of going to the principal's office, for fear he would deal out some horrible punishment, but now we look on these men as our friends. They are constantly working for our benefit, helping us to stay in school to get the kind of education necessary to success today.

Director of Counseling Service

As head of our counseling service for five years, Mr. Miller has helped make many students happier in their school life. Recently the services of his group have been extended to the grade schools of the area, enabling entering students to make the big jump from grade to high school much easier.

RUSSELL M. MILLER

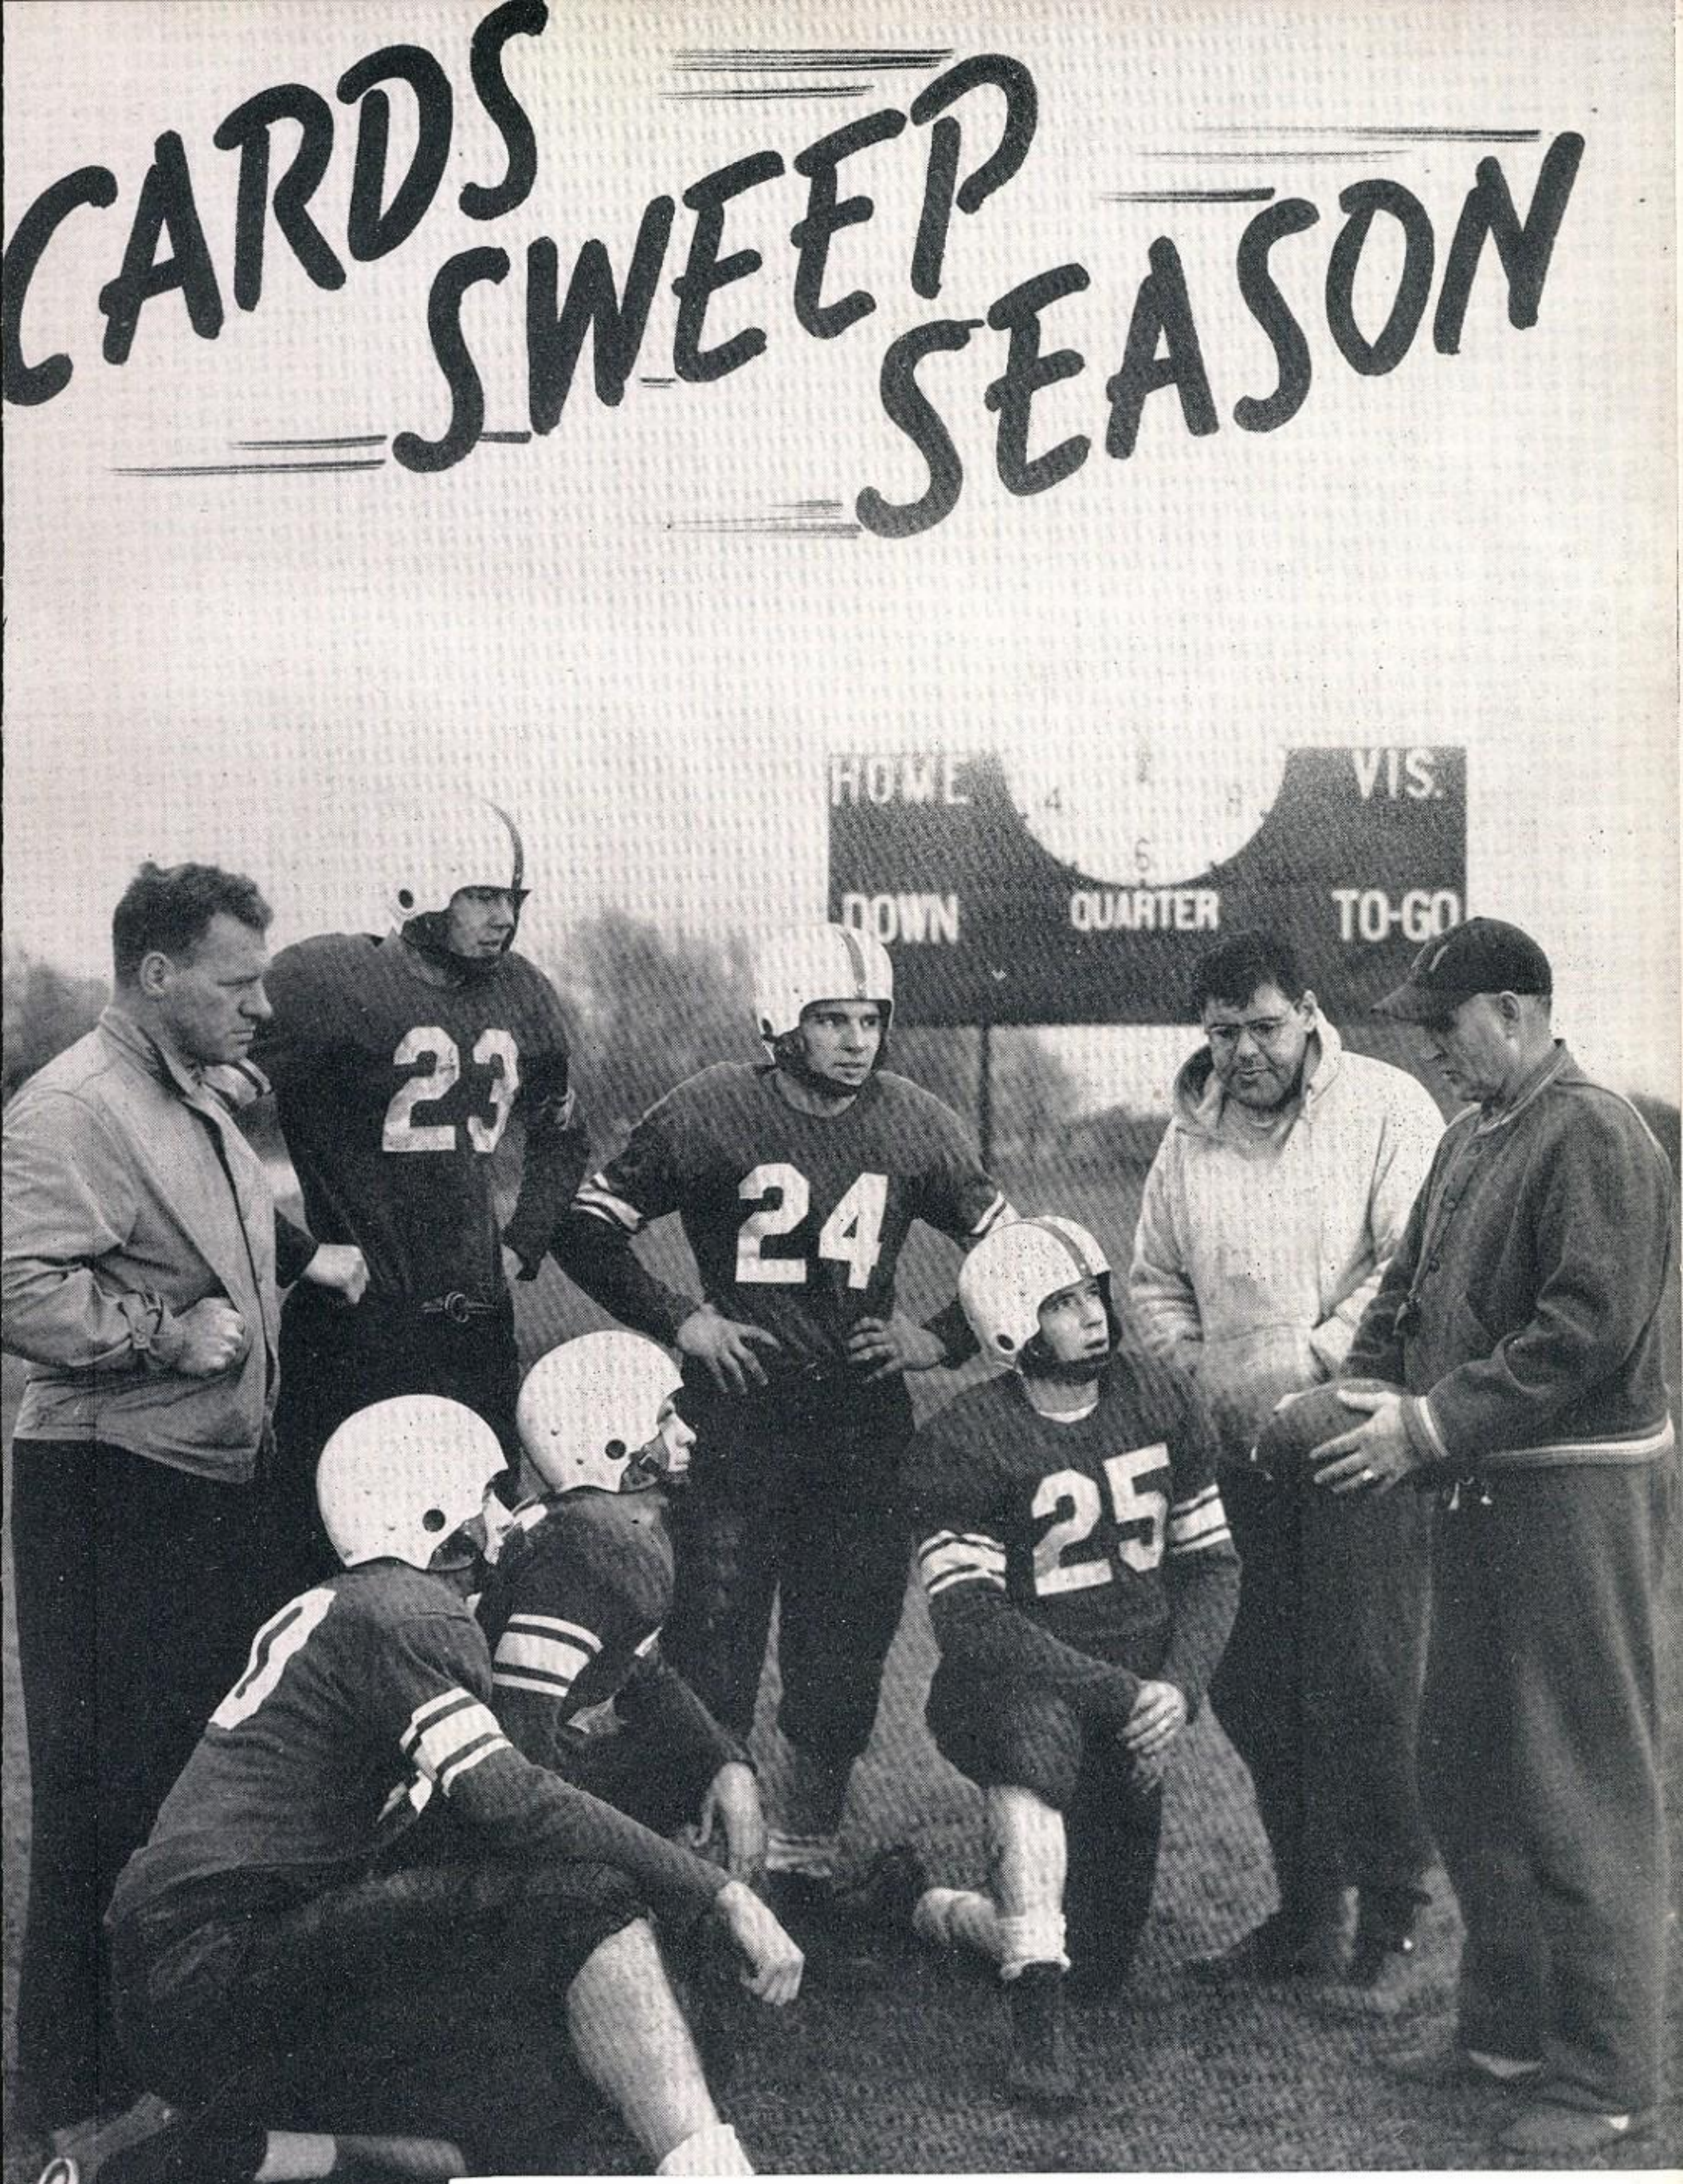
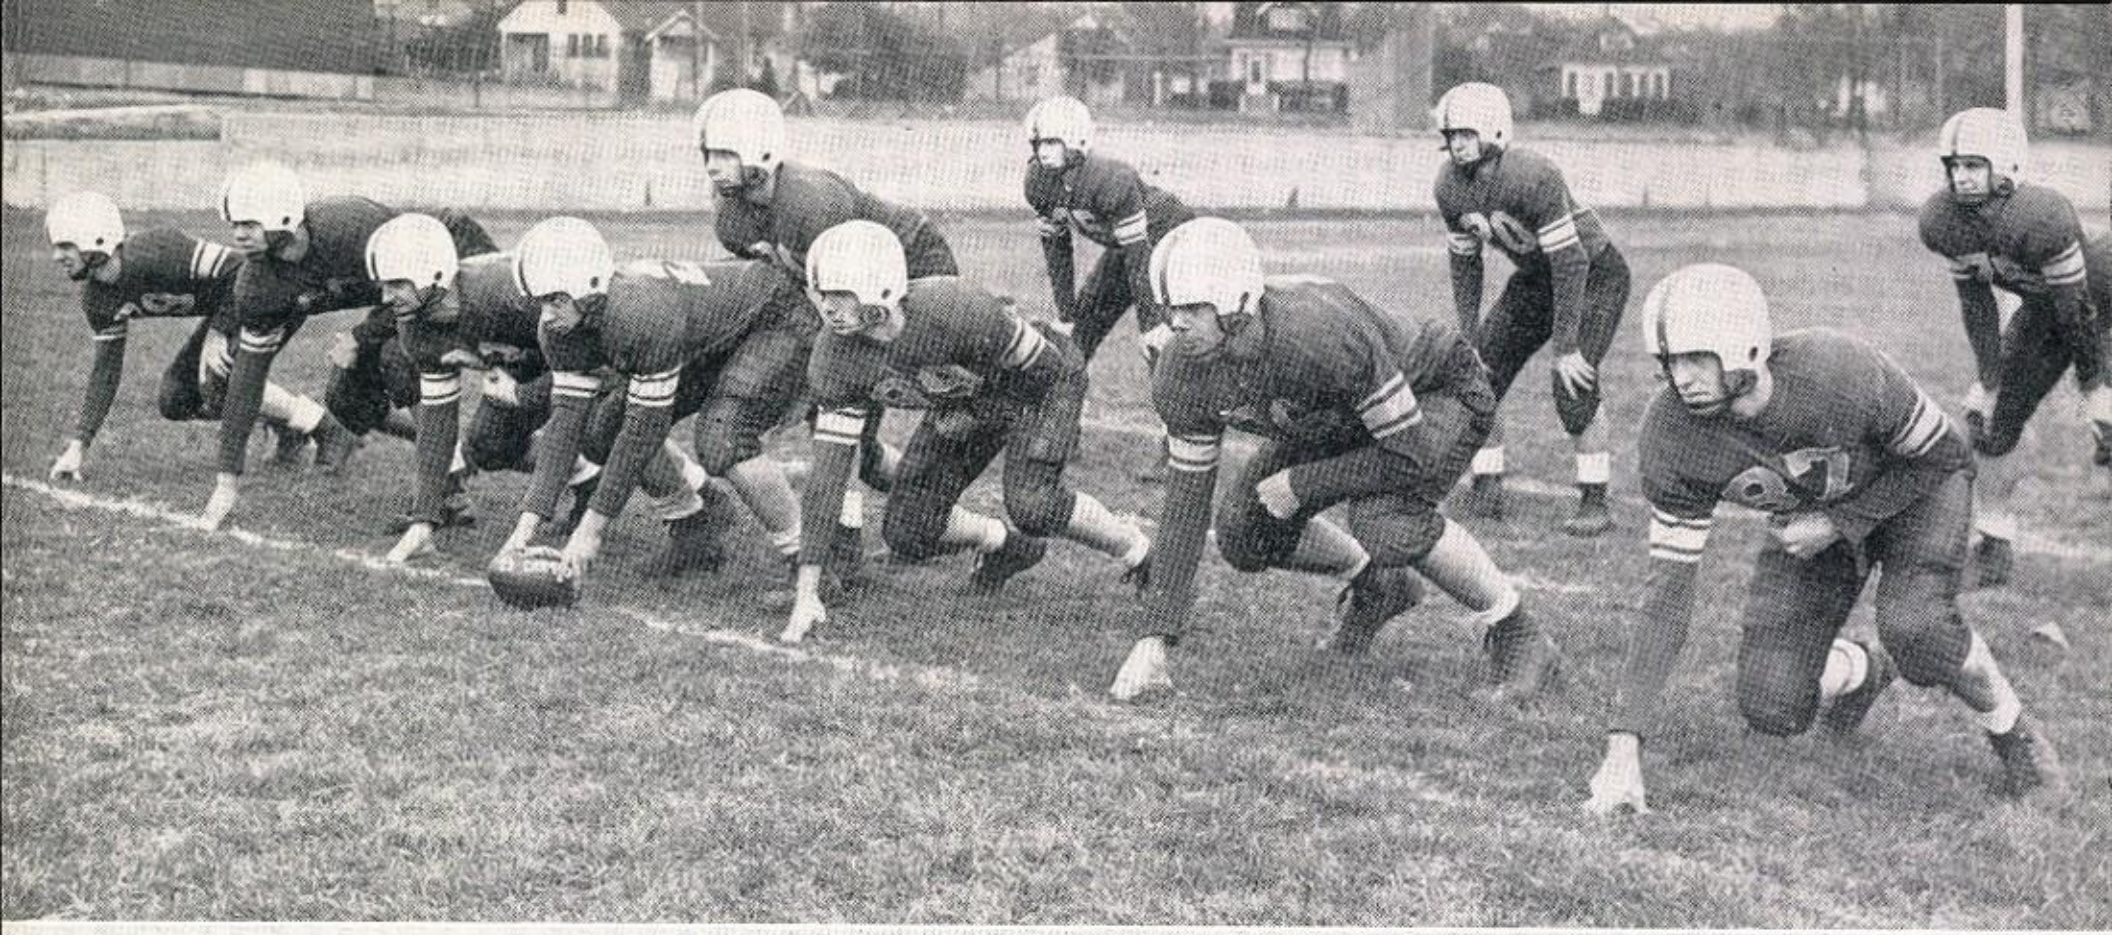
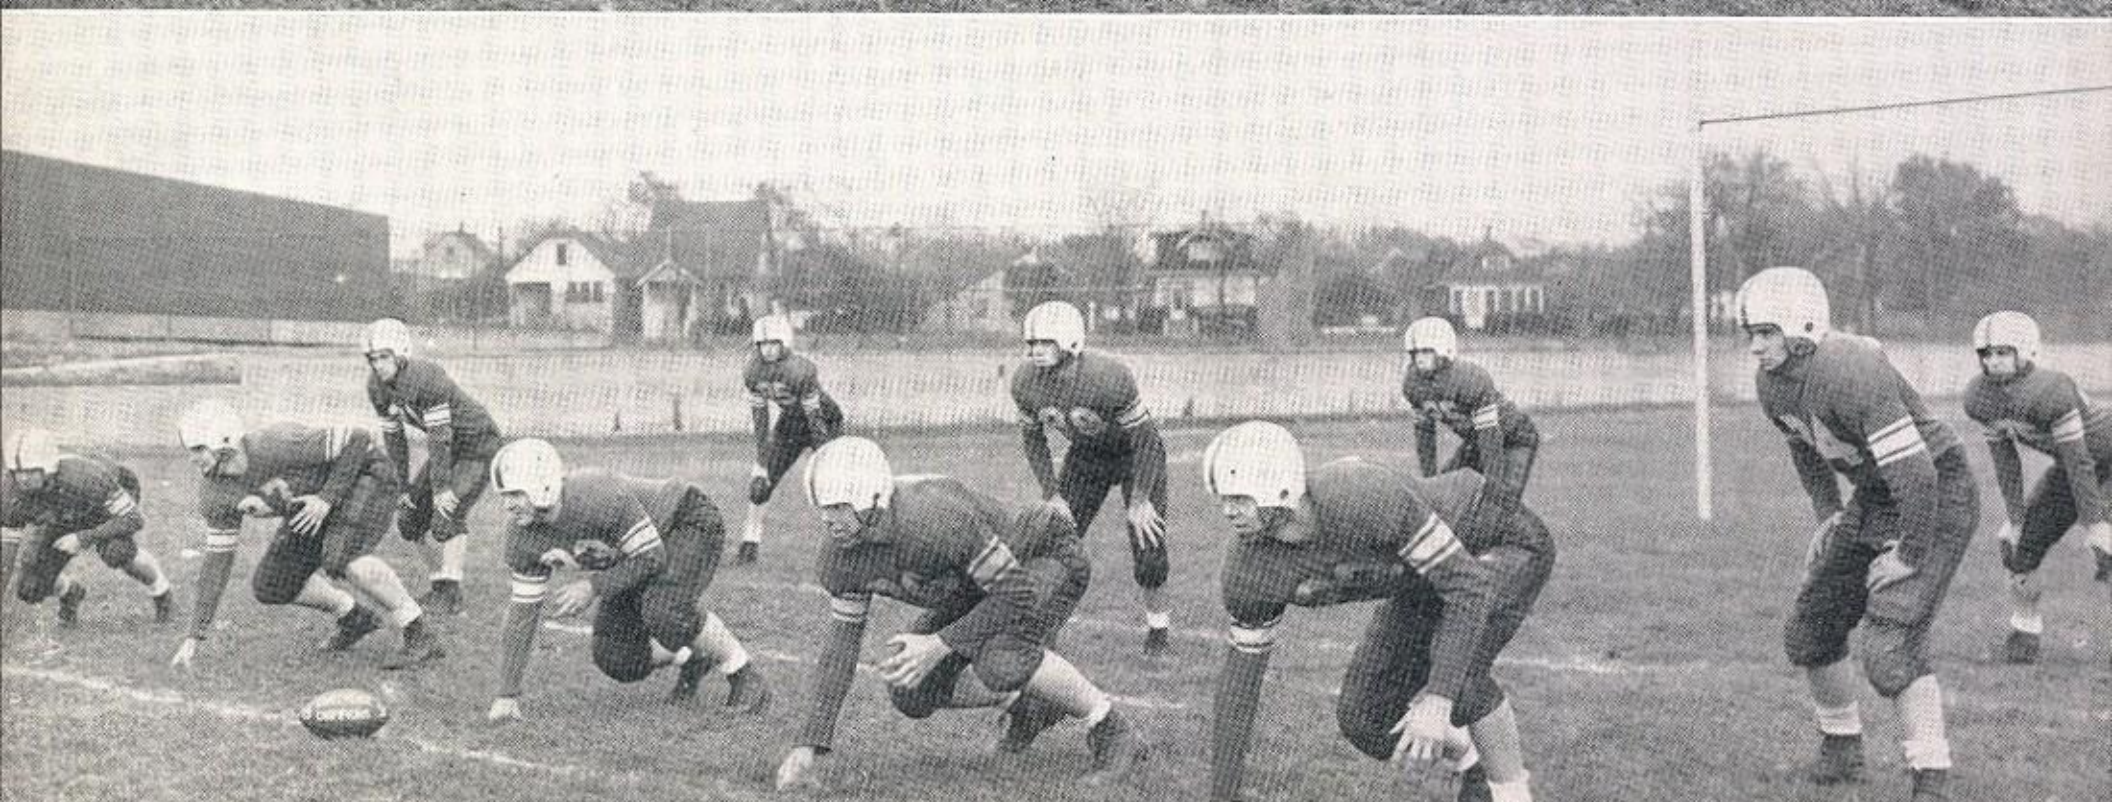
CARDS SWEEP SEASON



CAPTAINS AND COACHES TALK IT OVER

One of the winning plays that gave Community High a perfect season is being outlined by Head Coach Gutches to his assistants and the captains who served in the various games. Kneeling: Jim Bronson, Bob Novicki, and Jack Heniff. Standing: Coach Bergquist, Bob Foster, Julian Petrini, Coach Zoda, and Gutches.





OFFENSIVE ELEVEN THEY SCORED THE POINTS

CHAMPIONS OF SOUTH SUBURBAN LEAGUE

DEFENSIVE ELEVEN THEY KEPT OPPONENTS FROM SCORING

Kenneth Swanson, end; Jack Heuser, tackle; John Trudeau, guard; Glenn Miller, tackle; Robert Foster, end. Linebackers: Henry Jenderzak, Bill Meyers, Julian Petrini.

Backs: Bob Kough, Jack Heniff, Bob Novicki.

25—Jack Heniff, halfback. Community High's only all state star, yet he still wears the same size hat.

20—Dick Marsh, fullback. Always good for those few extra yards when needed.

21—Henry Jendrazek, "Hank", fullback, really mowed 'em down if they got past the line.

23—Bob Foster. Bob was a "double duty" man, playing both end and tackle.

24—Julian Petrini, center — always in the middle of things.

71—Ray Szwabowski, guard. Fast, aggressive action denoted Ray's playing.

75—Bob Novicki, halfback. Good for sparkling runs.

76—Buster White, tackle. Injuries side-lined Bus after impressive early season play.

79—Albert Dell, end. Al could really go after those passes.

80—George McElligott, guard. Capable substitute who really stopped 'em.

82—Bob Tarbet, halfback. Good defensive player.

83—Roy Brandt, guard. When the going got tough, Roy got tougher.

84—Victor White, end. Vic could really smear those end plays.

85—Bob Kough, quarterback. Bob seemed to know just where those runners would go. Fine defensive player.

87—Eugene Patno, end. On the offensive Gene certainly was that to the other team.

89—Gene Conrad, guard. Gene likes to rock 'em and sock 'em.

90—Jim Bronson, quarterback. Jim had the know how in running the team.

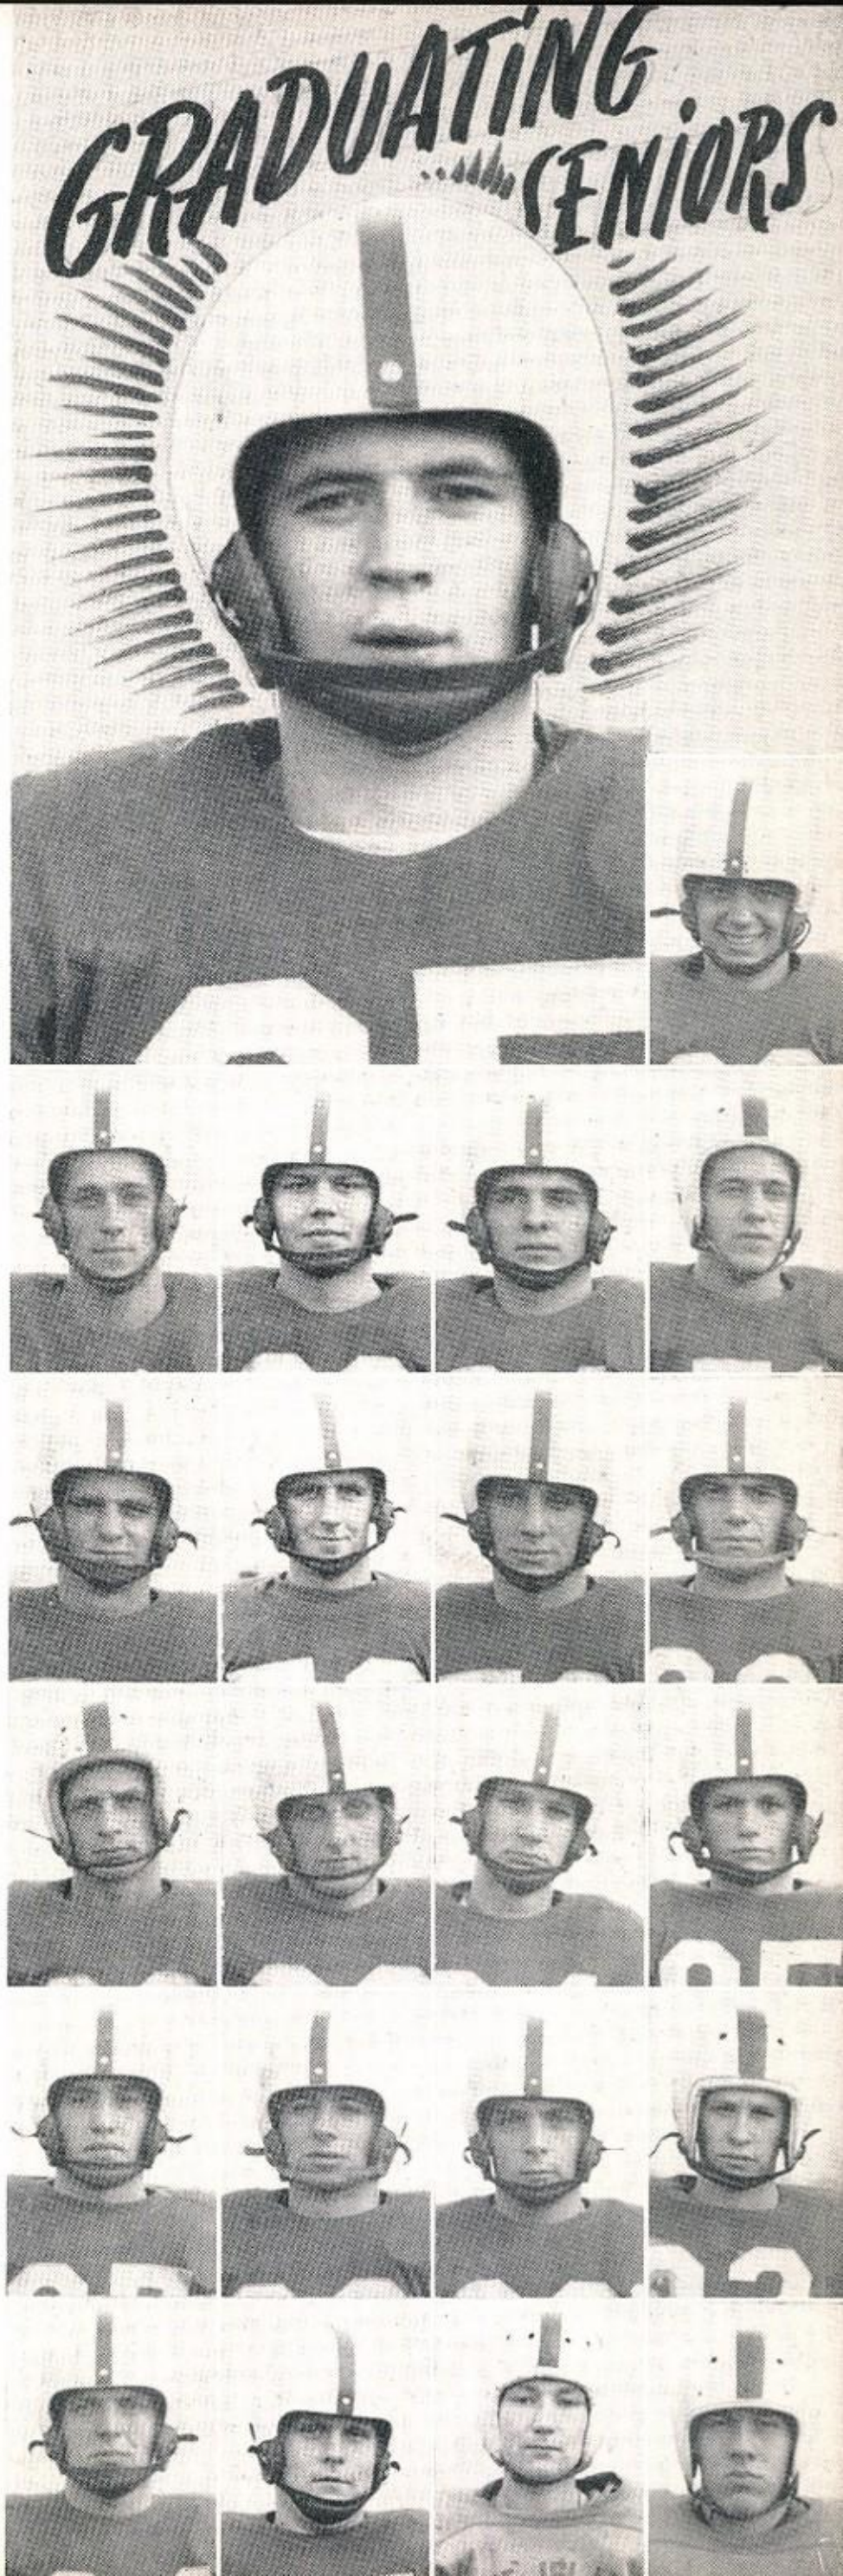
92—Bill O'Connell, halfback. Bill could always be depended upon.

94—Kenneth Swanson, end. Ken stopped 'em if they tried his end.

97—Jack Heuser, tackle. "Tiny" really proved to be a stone wall on defense.

Ken Hueter, tackle. Small but quick, Ken could get in there to stop those line plunges.

Wayne Zippel, tackle. Wayne liked to mix it up when playing in the line.



Varsity Football -- 1951 Season

Community High School enjoyed its best football season in the history of the school, going through the season undefeated. They won the South Suburban Conference for the second straight year and were one of 9 teams in the state of Illinois to complete the season without a defeat or tie.

The season opened with Geneva High School and although they scored the first 7 points of the game the Cardinals fought back and won the game 20 to 7.

The Leyden High School game was played in a pouring rain, and once again the boys had to come from behind to win 7 to 6. Blue Island scored and went ahead early in the third quarter and were content to protect their lead in a very hard fought game. This was the second year they were able to defeat Leyden by identical scores.

The Conference season was officially opened at Thornton in a typical Thornton-Blue Island game. This was a battle from start to finish and the outcome was in doubt until the final gun ending the game. Blue Island scored in the final minute of the first half when Dick Erfft ran like a scared rabbit 45 yards for a very important touchdown. Don Alfrejd kicked the extra point to give the boys from B. I. a 7 to 0 half time lead. Thornton came back strong to tie the score in the third quarter, but the Cardinals were not to be denied and Jack Heniff ran around left end to score the all-important touchdown in the last three minutes of the fourth quarter. This was probably the turning point in the Cardinal's season.

The next game was played before a Parents' Night crowd with Roosevelt of Chicago. All 35 boys suited for the game were given a chance to perform and ran up a score of 33 to 7.

On October 12 the Cardinals traveled to Argo and in Argo's homecoming game were able to eke out a 20 to 18 victory. Heniff and Novicki with the aid of good blocking made some nice gains. This was another game in which Blue Island was behind at the half and came back to win.

The next game was at home with Thornton Fractional and although the boys from Cal City gave their all it was not good enough and another victory was chalked up by the score of 14 to 0.

On October 26 Bloom came to Blue Island and this was the big game of the season for B. I. as a victory would give them their first undisputed conference championship. The whole squad really went to work and the results were excellent when they turned in the best game of the season in defeating Bloom by the lopsided score of 34 to 6. Jack Heniff played the best game of his high school career by returning the opening kickoff 82 yards for a touchdown, besides scoring four others during the evening.

What proved to be the final game of the year was played in a blinding snow storm on November 3 at Morgan Park Military Academy where the Cardinals scored early in the second quarter and ran the extra point and were content to protect their lead of 7 to 0.

The final game of the season was to be played with Kankakee but because of the heavy snow on the ground on November 9, and a downpour on the following Tuesday, the game was finally cancelled.

The following boys were picked on the All South Suburban Conference first team: Jack Heniff, Bob Novicki and Bob Foster. Julian Petrini, Glenn Miller and Roy Brandt were placed on the second All Conference team.

Jack Heniff and Bob Foster were placed on many mythical All Star teams in the area and Jack was still further honored by being picked on the Champaign News Gazette All State team. Coach Gutches and Jack were royally entertained in Champaign-Urbana at the All State party as guests of the News Gazette. Julian Petrini was chosen by his teammates as their honorary captain for the year. Jack Heniff received the Veteran of Foreign Wars most valuable player award at the Annual Lions Club banquet. Many parties and dinners were given in honor of this fine team.

Much of the success of this team was due to a burning desire to win, sacrifice, better than average students, a willingness to cooperate with the coaches, great team and school spirit, and lots of hard work.

Gaile Schick pins flower on lapel of Mrs. Trudeau's coat. In background are Joan Grill and Marianne Eisenhauer, of the welcoming committee.

Dads get decorated with son's number. Each dad wore the same number as his son did on the field.

Mary Lou Brawley and Nancy McCord present flowers and number to Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Mothers of the varsity football players stand to acknowledge applause of the crowd.

GOOD FOR ANOTHER POINT!

The combination that brought the Cards so many extra points is seen here about to boot another one over the cross bar. Center is Paul Echkorn, holding is Jim Bronson, kicking is Don Alfrejd. Head Coach Gutches always likes to watch these boys come through.

40—Heniff — carries for gain again.

Halfback Novicki sweeps around for long gain.

BLOOM GAME CLIMAX OF UNDEFEATED SEASON

Heniff seems stopped this time, but got away later for one of five touchdowns.

Tille Surridge, homecoming queen who ruled over Bloom game, is here flanked by two other queen candidates, Donna Stortz and Joan Grill.

Varsity teams give Head Coach Gutches free ride after one-sided victory over Bloom.

SNOW BOWL AT M.P.M.A. BRINGS CARDINALS DOUBLE VICTORY

This picture shows that snowballs would be more appropriate than footballs for the game with M.P.M.A. which wound up Community High's first unbeaten, untied season.

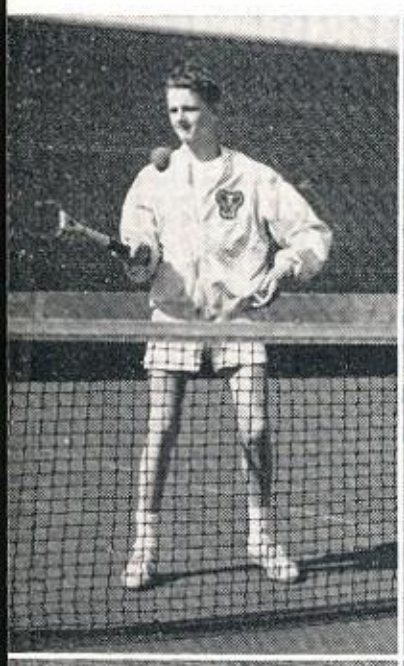
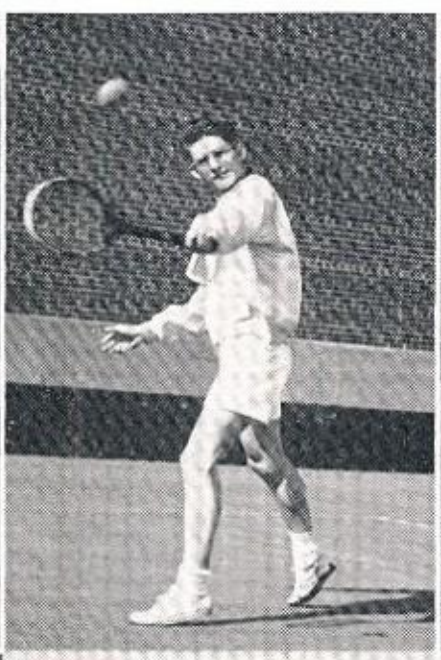
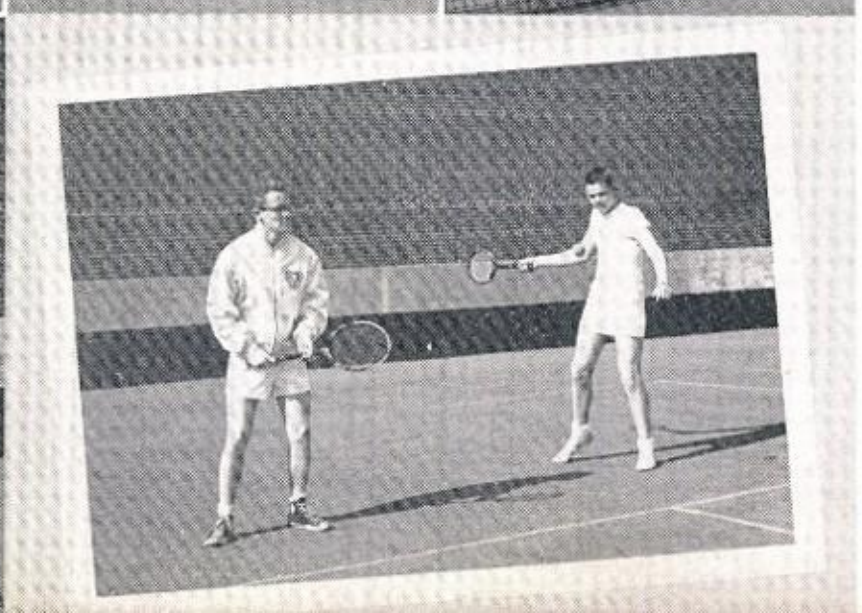
TENNIS SQUAD FOR 1951-52

These boys will again carry Cardinal colors far in the tennis wars this spring. After winning the state championship in 1950 Community High netmen were eliminated in the preliminaries last year. Coach Yates had a large squad out for fall tennis this year, however, and promises a return to the top with these fellows.







Danny Steele was the ranking sophomore player last year and should help the varsity greatly.

Jim Bronson, strong senior doubles player shared last year's district doubles title and conference doubles runner-up prize.

Gerald Vankus, ranking junior player who gained valuable experience as a varsity singles player in 1951.

Ralph Draeger, senior, should score in both singles and doubles this year. Last year he shared the district doubles runner-up title and thereby qualified for the state finals. He also shared the 1951 conference doubles title.

Bill McCoy is a junior whose experience in singles and doubles play should win matches for B. I. this spring.

Dean Mindeman is another junior who has played both singles and doubles and should improve this year.

Ken Groskopf and Lyle Aulwurm compiled a good record in sophomore and varsity doubles competition last year.

Girls' Physical Education
Girls' Athletic Club
Cheer Leaders

Bowling is a favorite sport for many girls, with the G.A.C. sponsoring a league at Burr Oak Lanes. Georgia Nemeth and Dorothy Leppin, of the Cardinal Coquettes, roll a strike while teammates Joyce Karlstedt, Barbara Piazza, Jane Schaumberg, Dorothy Jamison, and Irene Vorpahl look admiringly on.

Checking up on the scores is Nancy Gustafson. She is surrounded by teammates Diane Jones, Arlene Mosel, Gaile Schicht, Tillie Surridge, Joyce Karlstedt, and Dorothy Jamison. In the second row are Wanda King, Irene Vorpahl, Barbara Piazza, Judy Conrad, Marlene Mentz, Harriet Schuldt, Dorothy Leppin, and Georgia Nemeth.

The girls also enjoy square dancing. Forming the square in the left foreground are Dolores Vaccaro, Irene Wantuck, Tillie Vink, and Mary Moore. At the right are Florence Jackson, Jean Perryman, Dolores Barry, and Patricia May.

Lorretta Bright and Carol Reiher perform hand stands while Marilyn Statts, Janet Rusk and Clara Konrath support Mary Cleggett, Norma Conn, and Mary Anne Rypcznski.

Tumbling and pyramid building lead to many unusual formations! Shown in the first formation are Ellyn O'Connor, Ruth Stevo, Phyllis Rowley, Betty Schultz, Dorothy Lawrence, Carol Voss, Sue Markle, Vivian Eberhart, Marilyn Foss, Margaret Escobedo.

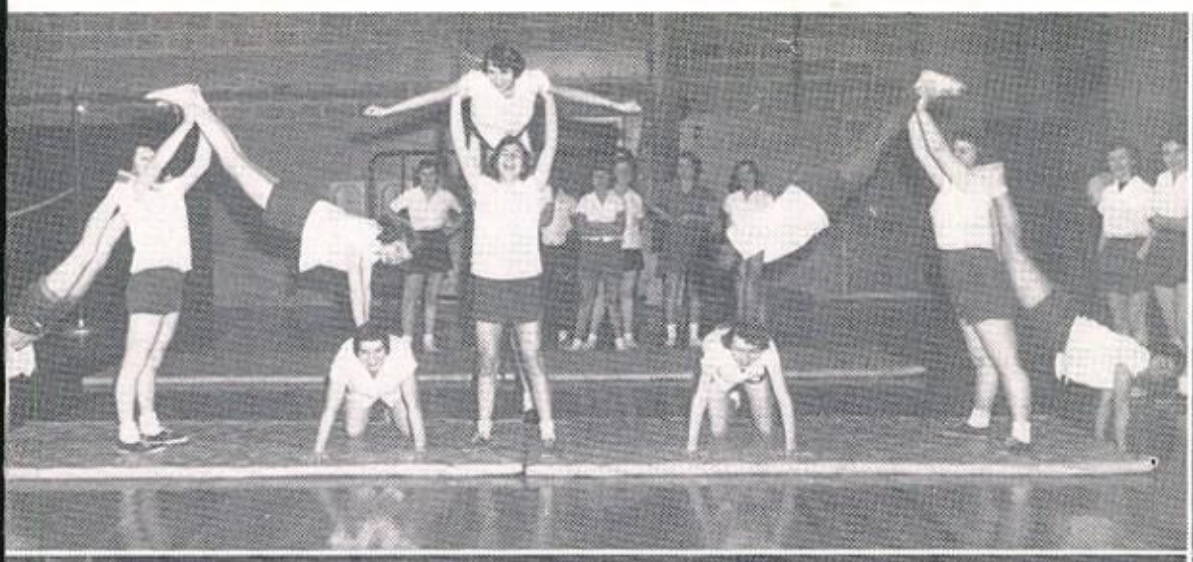
Everybody gets into the act here! Betty Lair and Vivian perform the split, Carolyn Dunham and Dorothy Jamison do hand stands, and Donna Bauer, Evelyn Dewar and Beverly Luchene support Dolores Butts, Nancy Dewar, and Ruth Golding.

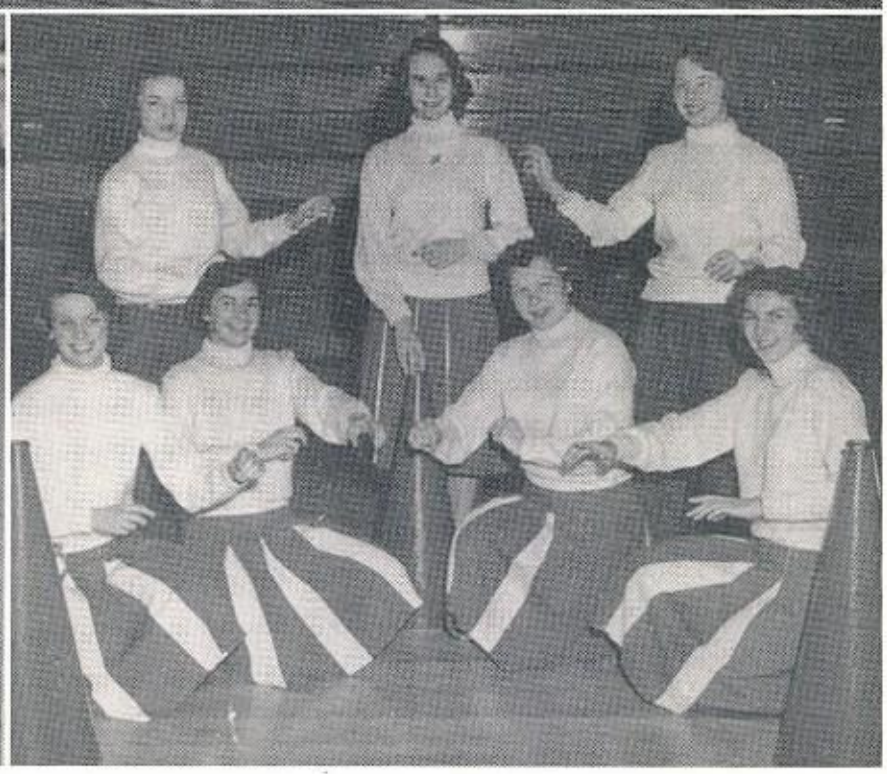
After such strenuous exercise this G.A.C. group is glad of the chance just to sit and relax. In front are Marilyn Dornecker, Elaine Burmeister, Lee Howalt, Ruth Bender, Joyce Karlstedt, Georgia Nemeth, Ruth Stevo. In back are Barbara Piazza, Nancy Graves, Evelyn Dewar, Terry Howalt, Adrianne Ganzer, and Dorothy Jamison.

G.A.C. Officers at Old Main are (in front) Elsie Pierre, secretary; Donna Schedin, treasurer; (back) Annette Thomason, vice-president; and Carol Sinise, president.

Large numbers turn out for every sport at Old Main, as these pictures of the girls under Miss Ebel's sponsorship show.

Yea, Blue Island! Here are the girls who lead our boys on to victory in all our sports. Kneeling: Nancy McCord, Dorothy Lawrence, Ruth Stevo, Joyce Karlstedt. Standing: Louise Klein, Barbara Piazza, Joan Roll.





COLLEGE NIGHT

This year's senior class enjoyed the first College Night, where college-minded seniors, their parents, and college representatives were brought together.

Fred Hogle and his mother talk over the possibilities of Bradley university with Mr. Richard L. Mize, admissions counselor of Bradley.

Jack Heniff and Marianne Eisenhauer fill out forms for Mr. Ave of Western State College.

While P.F.A. President Irving King and Mrs. King stopped to chat with the Wabash College representative, Bill Collester waited his turn.

Talking to Dr. and Mrs. Paul Street of Northern Illinois are Georgia Nemeth and her mother.

Clark Alford, his mother and sister, Joanne, all are interested in what Ripon College has to offer.

GIRLS' CHORUSES

PRETTY — AND THEY SING, TOO!

The main attraction at our annual Christmas and Spring concerts is the Girls' Chorus, the largest musical organization in the school.

GENERAL CHORUS

This is the newest musical group in school, organized for girls who like to sing.

MIXED CHORUS

TRAVELING CHORISTERS

The Mixed Chorus really gets around! Down at La Salle Street Station, out at Oak Forest, singing over WGN — these are only a few of the triumphs they have scored this year. And they are so busy that they have even had to pick officers to handle their affairs!

MIXED CHORUS OFFICERS

BOYS' CHORUS

STOUT HEARTED MEN SING STOUT HEARTED MEN

Booming out with strong bass, baritone, and tenor voices on old favorites, these fellows really like to sing, and audiences like to hear them, too.

CHIPS

This year, since so very few enrolled in the Publications class, volunteer workers had to be recruited. The class did most of the writing, while the volunteers worked with sorting, identifying and selling pictures. Still another group, under the direction of Mr. Kias sold ads.

BLUE I
THIS

ART STUDENTS

Blue Island art students have many and varied class activities to complete in their courses. Tempera painting is one of the most popular at both buildings. At one table at Old Main, James Hackett, Gail Syidak, Sandra Caswell, John Adams, and Barbara Lydick put finishing touches on their work, while Miss Grimmer checks on the work of Gloria Woike and Julie Polacek. At the Campus studio Jeanette Ames, Florence Smith, Pat May and Julia Orozco work on their masterpieces.

KEEP BUSY

Proper framing of pictures is a necessity, so Jeanette Ames and Bob Jones are getting their tempera paintings ready for display.

Students are their own best critics. Arthur Hasse points out some features of a display to Beverly Hillstrom, Gail Peloquin, Micki McHenry, Stanley Klepac and Eddie Rogers.

AT BOTH BUILDINGS

Some of the colorful posters made by the art classes at the Campus Building are shown back of Leanne Schwachtgen and Selso Martinez. Leanne is working on fashion design.

Cut out lettering requires a steady hand and great care, as these girls demonstrate. Audrey Schneider, Ingrid Olson, and Marlene Fentem prepare posters for College Night.

Advanced students Lorraine Orsolini, Nick Alex, and Theresa Ryska, are engaged in silk screen work.

Keeping books for the R. L. Dean Grocery isn't so very hard, but does take plenty of time, patience, and careful listening, as the seventh period bookkeeping class shows.

These typing students work with accuracy and speed under the watchful eye of Mr. Spurlock. Pictured are Gail Ganzer and Joy Katamay; Mary Garber and Mr. Spurlock.

BUSINESS

Doing good work in this Steno class means excellent jobs in the future, as Miss McQuistan's students are always sure of placement.

Map work requires lots of time and attention in Mr. Kias' commercial geography classes, as these pictures show. Top shows Shirley Lamke, Willis Schultz, Maureen Joyce, and Carole Russell at work on the globe.

Shirley Shields locates a spot on the wall map for Patricia Frawley, Gail Peloquin, and Edwin Diercks.

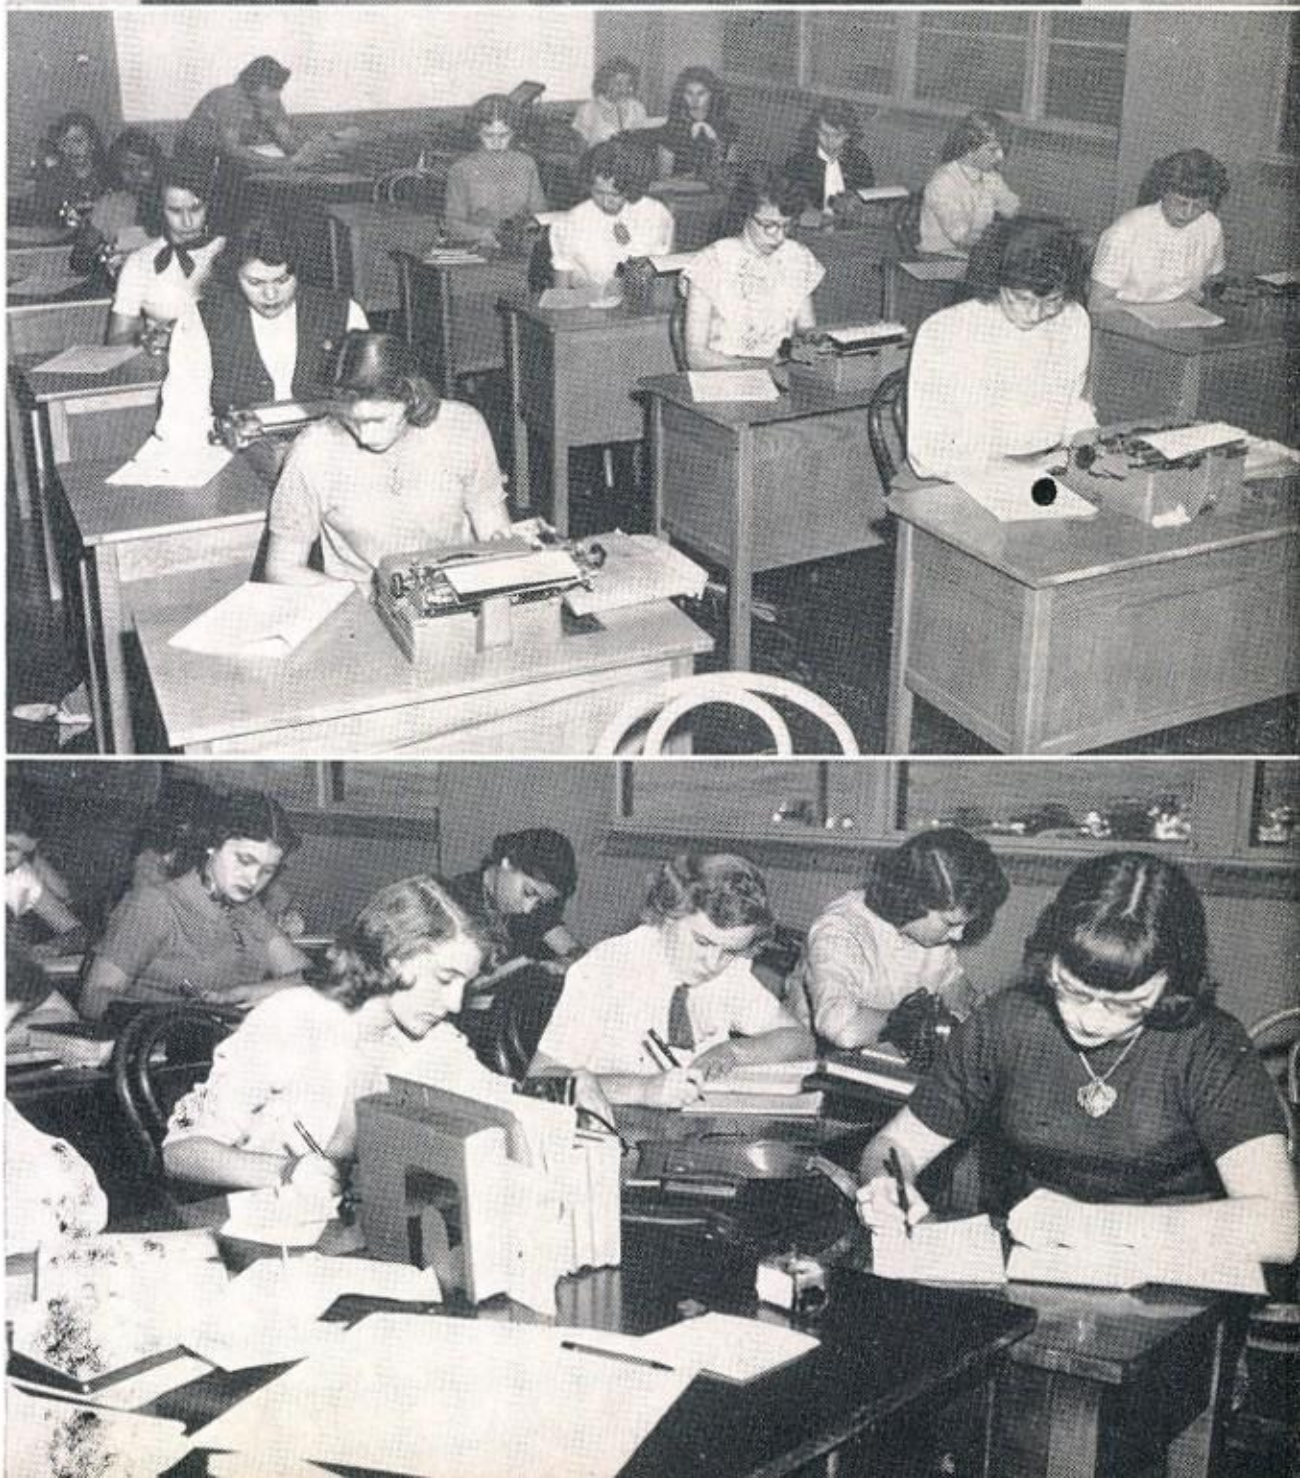
Girls in the Office Practice class get plenty of the kind of work they will have in the future at some good job.

At the typewriter: Joyce Karlstedt. At the dictaphone: Gladys Nilsson. At the mimeograph: Erlean Witcher, Marilyn Summers, Emily Tarquino, Frances Van Layten.

Practice, practice, practice, and more practice is the essential for all typing and stenography students.

Row 1: Roseann Spinazola, Chiquita Smith, Barbara Piazza, Lorraine Orsilini, Alice Olson. Row 2: Emily Tarquino, Elaine Meyers, Jackie Simon, Joyce Krech, Paula Kohs. Row 3: Gladys Nilsson, Joyce Karlstedt, Gail Ganzer, Jane Cole, Anna Mae Bult.

Another class group shows Irene Wantuck, Daveta Bryan, Carol Buege, Margaret Cianci, Marlene Fentem, Sally Garcia.



The all-new, completely modern equipment of the foods classes make working in here a delight. Arlene Reed, Evelyn Zuidema, Evelyn Bystrom, Beverly Bowden and Clara Ebbens are demonstrating how to use the electric dryer.

HOMEMAKING CLASSES

Rita Errico is all set for a good game of tennis.

Irene Puttkammer has a wonderful addition to a summer wardrobe in this sunback dress with a perky white jacket.

Marjorie Heim is all set to swing her partner in this square dancing frock.

Marcia Gedicki in her loud colored pajamas was the envy of every girl in the audience.

THE FASHION SHOW

"Fashions by the Yard" was the title of the style show given last spring by the girls of the homemaking classes. Pictures show the girls modeling clothes they had made for different occasions.

One of the projects of the Homemaking I class was to prepare a complete breakfast. Here Helene Wielgorecki, Marilyn Dommer, Jackie Barcal, Jean Mooi, Geraldine Schultz and Phyllis Tieman do the cooking while Lucy Dennis, Claudette Ridgner, Gracie Allen, Dorothy Jones and Allene Mitchell set the table.

One of the most popular phases of homemaking classes is dressmaking. Here Marcia Gedicke is fitting a date dress on Joy Katamay.

Jewel Moore and Audrey Petrie are studying a pattern while Jean Henderson is doing some preliminary hand work.

Dorothy Weathington, Elaine Wille and La June Lewis have just been taking inventory of the frozen food supply in the deep freeze locker.

Jean Perryman is making tailor tucks while Jennie Reitsma bastes. Elberta De Libra and Rose Reitsma are at the sewing machines.

Barbara Chellino, Nancy Werner, Marjorie Heim and Anna Cizmar are cleaning the "little apartment" in preparation for a party.

Jean Perryman is taking a hem in Marilyn Landgraf's jumper while Joyce Gierman is fitting a reversible coat for Esther Burnett.

Setting the table for the festivities are Luevenia Thompson, La June Lewis, Tillie Vink, Dorothy Weathington, and Ruth France.

Following the style show the foods classes served cookies and punch in the living room of the home economics suite. Pictured serving is Emily Tarquino and Joy Katamay.

Virginia Wotjas, Katherine Weirsma and Ann Zolfo model pleated blue cotton skirts and white tucked sleeveless blouses.

HEALTH IS IMPORTANT

Watching over the health of 2000 students in two separate buildings is a busy job for Mrs. Larson, school nurse!

Joe Davies learns how to use the Massa Vision Testing Machine, a gift of the Blue Island Lions Club.

At Old Main Mrs. Larson confers with Earnestine Anthony on the points of careful grooming for school.

At the Campus Building she checks the pulse rate and temperature of Carol Williamson.

Athletically minded boys must keep a careful check on their weight, so Bill Russell, John Rita, Robert Tarbert, Selso Martinez, Tom Radeke, Robert Kough, and Miles Eihlers come in for a check up.

The nurse and her Campus Building assistant, Jean Nelson, check the student files.

First aid work always comes first with the school nurse. Selso Martinez gets a sprain bandaged as Robert Tarbet looks on.

LIBRARY CLUBS

Some of the Library Club members demonstrate the type of aid they can give Comm Hi students. Betty Englund is filing catalog cards and Rita Bolek is typing pockets and cards for books. Montez McNulty is arranging the vocational file, where useful pamphlets on several hundred vocations are filed. Assisting are Regina Gustafson and Arden Knack. Douglas Adams prepares book jackets for display while John Stevo and Judy Hofman give books a final check before placing them on shelves for student use.

STUDENT LIBRARIANS

Science Classes

This large class can waste no time in solving one of the intricate problems that Mr. Ames assigns.

First table: William Schmude, Gaile Schicht, Ronald Schultz, Wilbur Smith, Robert Adam, Kenneth Hueter, Walter Miller.

Second table: William Josefson, Melvin Kraas, William Elias, Wayne Sippel, Richard Hermanson, Don Chapman.

Rear table: Ralph Draeger, Lucy Mae Rice, Fred Ultsch, Dean Heimbach, Jim Bronson, Fred Hogle, Donald Duff, Ed Trump.

Lucy Mae Rice, Ralph Draeger, Fred Ultsch, and Dean Heimbach combine their efforts to work a laboratory experiment in physics.

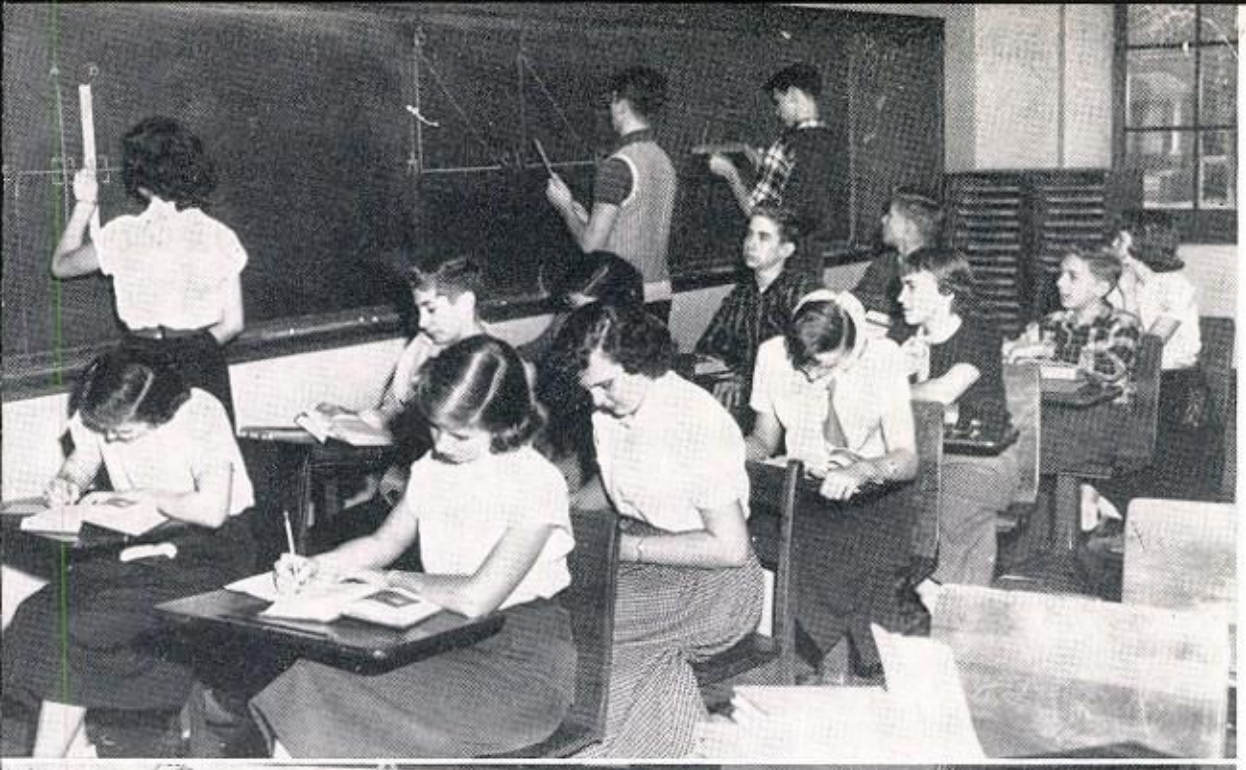
Physics

Entering the results of this experiment in their notebooks are Carol Anderson, Donald Englehardt, and Delores Barry on the left, and Paul Eichorn, George Driese and Richard Gibson on the right.

Chemistry

Careful work is demanded of all students in chemistry laboratory, with Mr. Akey handy to check on every phase of the experiments.

Row 1: Carol Anderson, Kenneth Groskopf Row 2: Donald Alfrejd, Phillip Ingerson, Richard Bahls, Richard Gibson, Donald Englehardt, Paul Eichorn. Row 3: James Kirchner, Allan Malvick, Mary McCormack, William McCoy, Mr. Akey. Row 4: Carol Lassa, Fred Myers, David Schultz. Row 5: Carol Mills, Dorothy Sloan, Kent Paser.



Plenty of blackboard work, plus lots of drawings done in class and study hall is the rule in mathematics classes.

Math

Two problems are neatly done by Harriet Simington and Edward Stefek, as Fred Hofer, John Bartos, Robert Brownlee, Sally De Vault, Virginia Bullock, Lorraine Muencle, Barbara Land, Lorraine Karlstedt, Richard Courtney, Helen Hinz, and Tom Busch look on.

Mr. Steele checks on the work of this group, composed of Edward Janotta, Gerald Hansen, Stephen Gregoric, Charles Garton, and Geraldine Friebel in the first row; and Gerald Engdahl, Gail Eberts, Robert Carlson, Elaine Bucick, Sylvia Archer, and Dorothy Anderson.

MATHEMATICS and STENO CLUBS

Officers for 1951-52 were: Mrs. Betty Fencl, secretary; Mr. Russell Miller, treasurer; Mr. Irving King, president; Mrs. Dorothy Rowley, program chairman.

The School's Best Friend

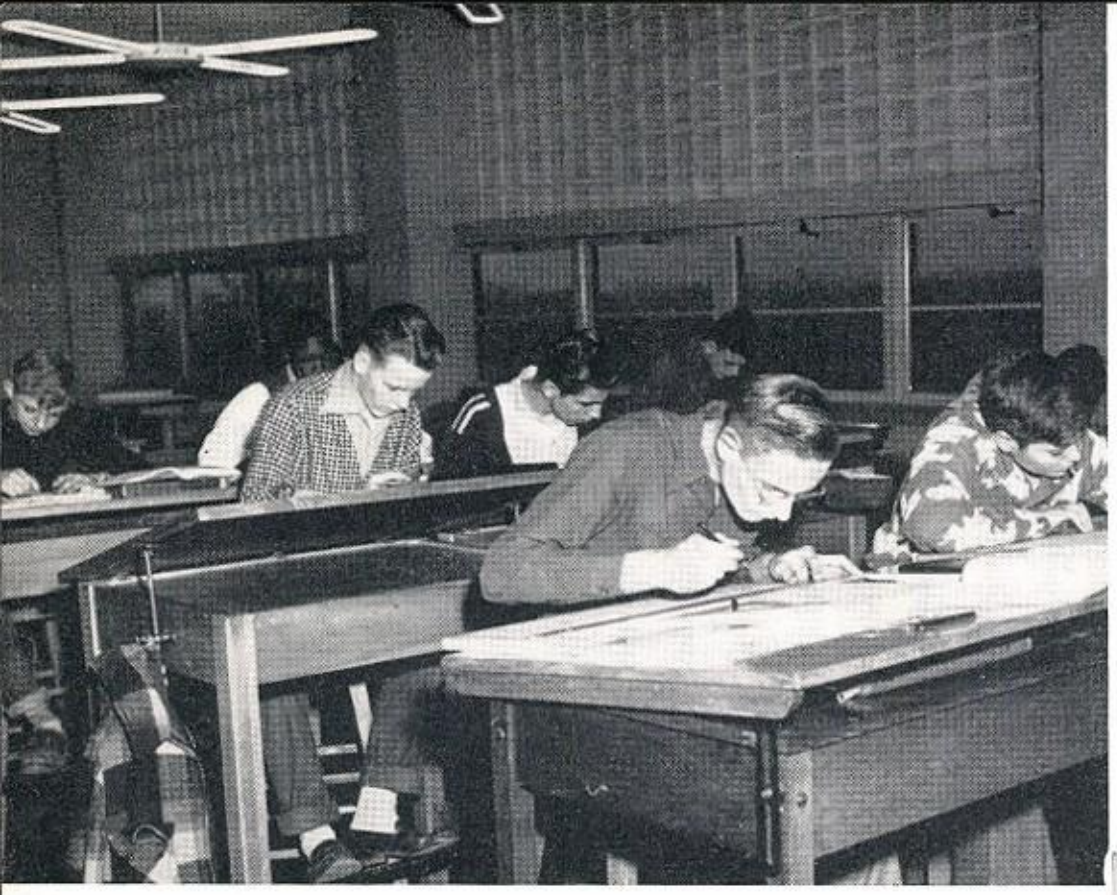
PARENT FACULTY ASSOCIATION

Each year the P. F. A. climax their activities by an open house celebration, to which they invite all parents and friends of the school to inspect the work of the students. These scenes are from the May, 1951, Open House.

MECHANICAL DR

Shop classes are always popular and well filled . . .

In the advanced woodworking class most of the work is done on the power tools.



Boys in mechanical drawing apply themselves closely to those intricate designs. Working are: Kenneth Klaviter, Clint Hatfield, William Nelson, John Hegyi, Ronald Drenthe, David Raske, Joseph Johnson, Charles Carton, Fred Storey, Alanzo Hale.

Mr. Gross checks on a lamp base that Glenn Miller is turning.

At the saw are Lorne Davis and Allen Boyce. In the background are Byron Spargo and Carl Alpers.

Most of these boys seem to have chosen some sort of occasional table for their project. On the left are: William Meyer, Ronald Pacanowski, Julius Benning, and Fred Beech. At right are: Irving Rockrohr, Phillip Hernandez, Bernard Buczek, and Bruno Alampress.

Working on their special projects in this class are Fredrick Heiden, Donald Udoni, Glenn Miller, Ronald Stare, John Partoll, Claude Wheeler, Fred Rickert, Raymond Gieselman.

VING -- MACHINE -- WOOD -- METAL SHOPS

Machine Shop classes mean working with power tools and plenty of them.

This year some of the projects made in metal shop were displayed at the Campus Building.

At the lathes are Robert Myers, Sterling Tigue, Harold Boomsma, Mr. Koprucki. In the back are Jay Leppin, Warren Hardt, Alfred Mosel.

Working on other lathes are Dick Willcoxson and Charles Schultz (front), and Ronald Waschke and Jim Sedder.

At the milling machine are Roland Swanson and Mr. Koprucki.

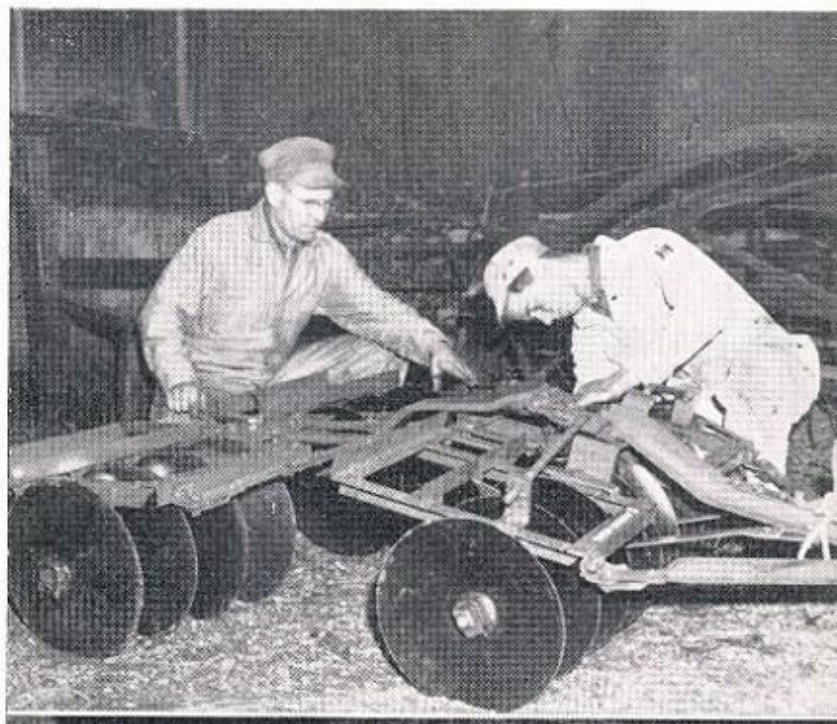
Grouped around Jesse Watkins at this lathe are David Hurdt, Rudy Meliska, and Curtis Mapp. In the background is Warren Hardy, Jay Leppin, John Partoll and Alfred Mosel.

At one of the drill presses are Wally Massat and Ed Michalski. At the bench are Eugene Bradley, Monroe Bouie and James Hayes.

Bench work occupies Jim Sessa, Eugene Karczewski, Robert Klir, and Wayne Flassig.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS

Diversified Occupations is a program offered to students in their third and fourth years that enables them to go to school for a half day and work for the other half in their chosen occupations. This year the Diversified Occupations Advisory Committee Program is even larger, with more business cooperating, and more students being placed in their chosen fields of work.



Ben Specht, foreman at Schaemedek Implement Company, gives words of advice to Charles Schwarz as he adjusts bearing boxing on a Cub 23 A disc. This is the second year that Charles has been a member of the Diversified Occupations Class.

Drilling a hole in a piece of glass is just one of Rudy Disabato's jobs as glass cutter and fitter at Beverly Glass and Mirror Co. Mr. Schumacher, manager, is looking on to see that Rudy does another good piece of work.

"It's fun to work at home," or so Milly Roche thinks. She works in the office at Old Main and is cashier in the cafeteria.

Bill Hofer checks the timing as Bud Overton and Mr. Christian, shop forman, watch for mistakes. Bill is in his second year and has been employed at Blue Island Willys sales and service for the entire time.

Ray Schwarz, of Ray's Service Station, looks on as Bruce Braden replaces the air cleaner as one of the final steps in motor tune-up. This is the second year Bruce has been on the program.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS CLASSES

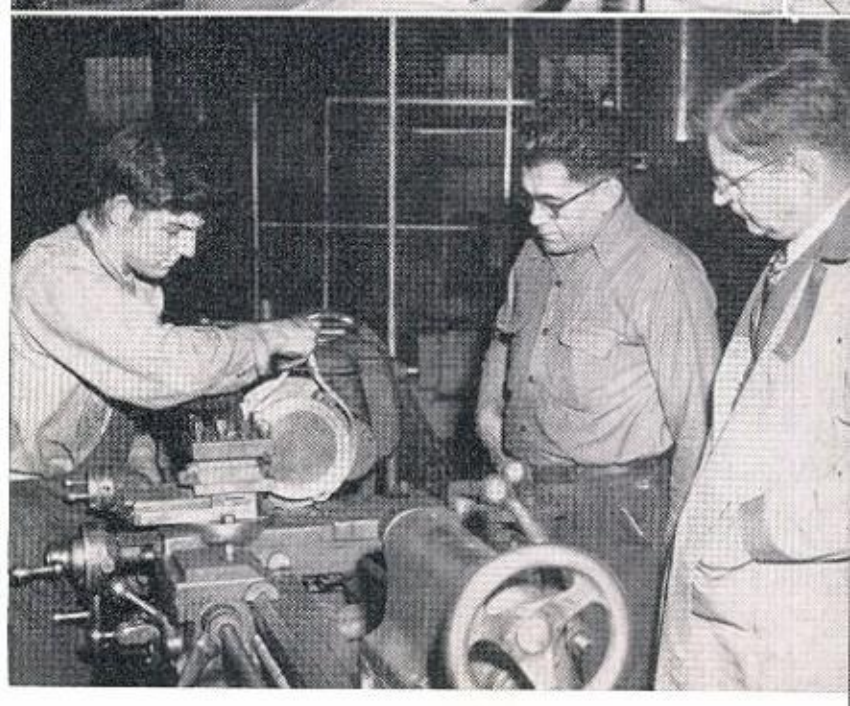
Seated: John Gilpin, Darlene Schultz, Shirley Perryman, Carol Space, Joan Patno, Barbara Roberts, Frances Van Laten, Bruce Braden. Standing: Mr. Lowe, Eugene Kennedy, Harold Bodinet, Wayne Dewitt, George Hunt, Bill Hofer, Robert Wyma, Charles Schwarz, Richard Weigand, David Gunther, Daniel Disabato, Rudy Disabato, George Harman.

George Herman puts on the finishing touches as he edge sands a drawer front which will fit into a sink cabinet. This is George's first year on the program as a cabinet maker.

The work of Eugene Korzenko, draftsman at the Equipment Steel Company, gets the once over and the o.k. from Mr. H. G. Robertson, one of the vice-presidents. Eugene is in his second year on the program and also his second year at Equipment Steel.

The Deluxe Market is sure to get another satisfied customer as George Hunt, meat cutter, cuts pork chops as part of his Diversified Occupations training.

Seated: Charles Wood, Roseann Spinazola, Joanne Rickhoff, Jacqueline Simon, Mildred Roche, Rita Errico, Joyce Krech, Vernon Nelson. Standing: James Slusarski, Donald Henschel, Louis Lenco, Roman Scheidel, William McCoy, Jay Leppin, Nick Alex, John Hojek, Bert Busch, Robert Rauch, Jack Mansfield.



Harold Bodinet measures the diameter of a pump cylinder head with calipers, as Nick Schaefer and J. U. Bronson look on. Harold works at Bronson's machine shop. Harold has been on the program for two years.

Jack Mansfield, Diversified Occupations Student, working at Equipment Steel, talks things over with his boss, Fran Wright. This is Jack's first year on the program as an assistant to the production manager.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Seated: Henry Baumann, The Mayfair; Bud Overton, B. I. Willys; Lloyd J. Lowe, Co-ordinator; Harry Robertson, Equipment Steel; Herman Bach, Fiedler Motors.

Clubs Meet on Wednesdays

Student clubs at Old Main and the Campus Building always seem to have good attendance when pictures are made!

At Old Main the Homemaking Club members gather to eat the tasty cake that is being frosted by Marion Pepalis and Beverly Howell.

A new organization has sprung up this year at Old Main. The Art Club is for students who want to use extra time to get their artistic ideas and new creations down on paper.

Under the direction of Mr. Disharoon, visual education director at Old Main, these boys of the Pro Club give up their study hall time to show movies for all classes using visual education.

Who said boys weren't brainy?
At any rate, the Chess and Checker Club this year is made up of boys only and they all play chess, a game for mental marvels!

PRO CLUB

Members of the Pro Club at the Campus Building are under the direction of Mr. Weber.

PAPS CLUB

These boys are selected by Mr. Ames and are in charge of the public address system during all school activities.

LANGUAGE CLUBS AND CLASSES

Students of the several languages taught at Community High spend time in both classes and clubs to learn more about the customs and history of the people they study.

The German II class record their own voices to improve enunciation. Standing: Harry Harmeyer, Lawrence Michael, John Richards, John Stobba, Patricia Cory, Edith Massat, Thomas Riley, and Carl Ackerman. Seated: Kenneth Hueter, Kenneth Hallberg, Mary Begeman, Kay Burmeister, and Louise Klein.

Interested in the cultural background of the Romans, and in showing up for the meeting at which their pictures were taken, are these members of the S. P. Q. R. Row 1: Carl Michelis, Marilyn Greager, Ernestine Anthony, Betty Wilde, Penny Kerrigan, Regina Gustafson. Row 2: Donald Englishman, Georgia Damm, Ann Davis, Joan Nimmer, Ruth Stevo, Janet Ecklund. Row 3: Jim Wells, Eloise Walker, Anna Peoples, Gail Ebers, Betsy Palmer, Jean Nordstrom. Row 4: Gerald Schueman, Harriette Simmington, Susan Sollenbarger, Barbara Land, Carol Benck. Row 5: Ruthmary Pilcher, Sally Kennedy, Sharron Moore, Cloette Parker, Claudette Travers, Carol Anderson. Row 6: Bill Crispe, Ladoris Walin, Marilyn Cianci, Jeanne Nelson, Sylvia Archer, Nancy Kott, Mrs. Patten, Miss Keniston.

Students of Spanish II examine hand made articles from Mexico. Elaine Buciak, Robert Dudley, Gloria Woike, Agnes Rangel, Delores Watkins, Wayne Vanek, Danny Steele, Ken Tieman, Patricia Bailey, Lloyd Krout, William Alderson, Roland King, Albert Anderson.

The main interest of these members of the Pan American League is in our neighbors of Central and South America. Row 1: Sally Schee, Phyllis Rowley, Toni Cassaretto, Lee Howalt, Ramona Bravo, Miss Keniston, Miss Cluver, John Swalec, Ralph Draeger. Row 2: Joyce Karlstedt, Sally De Vault, Bette Nelson, Terry Howalt. Row 3: Barbara Rolfe, Shirley Barnett, Nate Mendoza, Dorothy Lawrence, Gloria Woike, Carole Mills, Betty Van Heusen, Georgia Nemeth. Row 4: Margaret Escobedo, Mary Rangel, Agnes Rangel, Marion Engstrom, Barbara Piazza. Row 5: Marilyn Stats, Janet Erickson, Joan Gierhahn, Phyllis Nilles. Row 6: Danny Steele, Rod Stahl, Kay Paulsen. Row 7: Mary Ann Fecko, Janet Vasquez.

Officers of this large group are Vice-Pres. Lee Howalt, Treas. John Swalec, Sec. Georgia Nemeth, and Pres. Barbara Piazza.

Modeling a hand made Mexican dress for the admiration of her classmates is Barbara Rolfe. Others are, (seated): Bernard Calderon, John Juarez, Geraldine Friebel, Robert Carlson. Standing: Ian Katamay, Shirley Barnett, Carole Flynn, Donald Smith, Sally De Vault, Corwin Hutchinson, and Roderick Stahl.

FRENCH CLUB

Richard Lowe, holding the poster, is taking the French Club on an imaginary cruise along France's coast line.

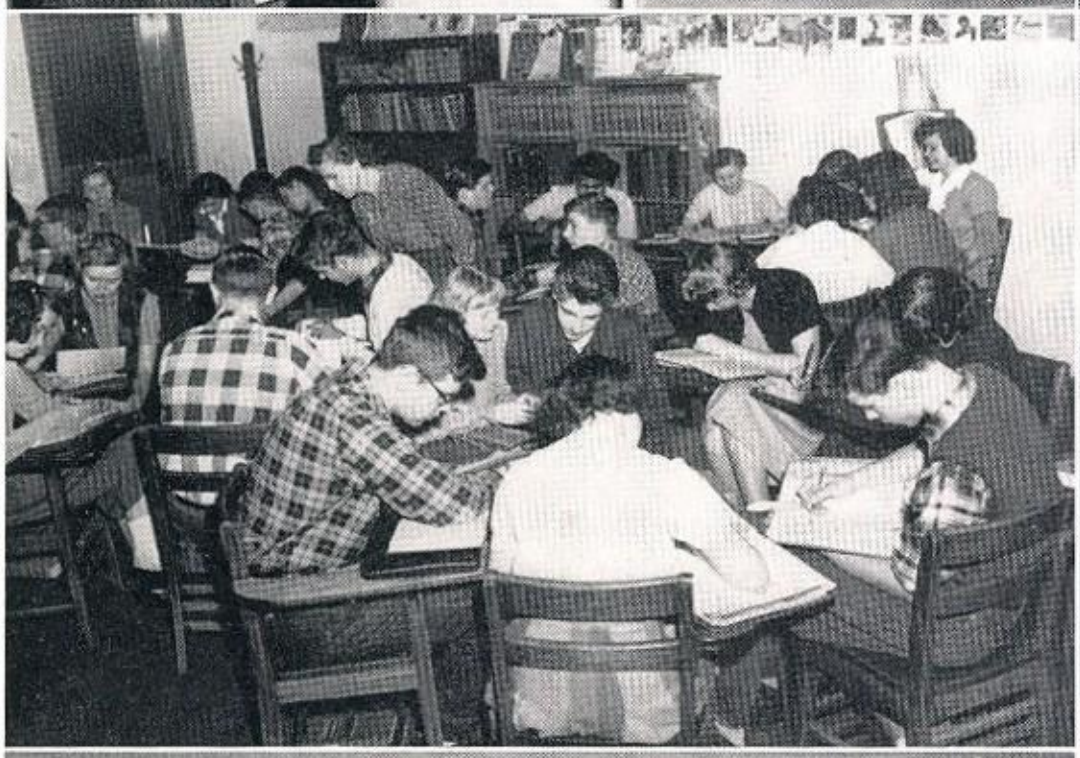
HERE AND THERE IN COMMUNITY HIGH



Admiring some of the projects they have made in their study of the pioneering period are Jack Caple, Phil Ingerson, Betty Benda, Pauline Gander, Marjorie Kinderwater, and Anna Cizmar, from Miss Holden's English III class.

Group work on notebook projects holds the interest of this large class of Miss Latham's, at Old Main.

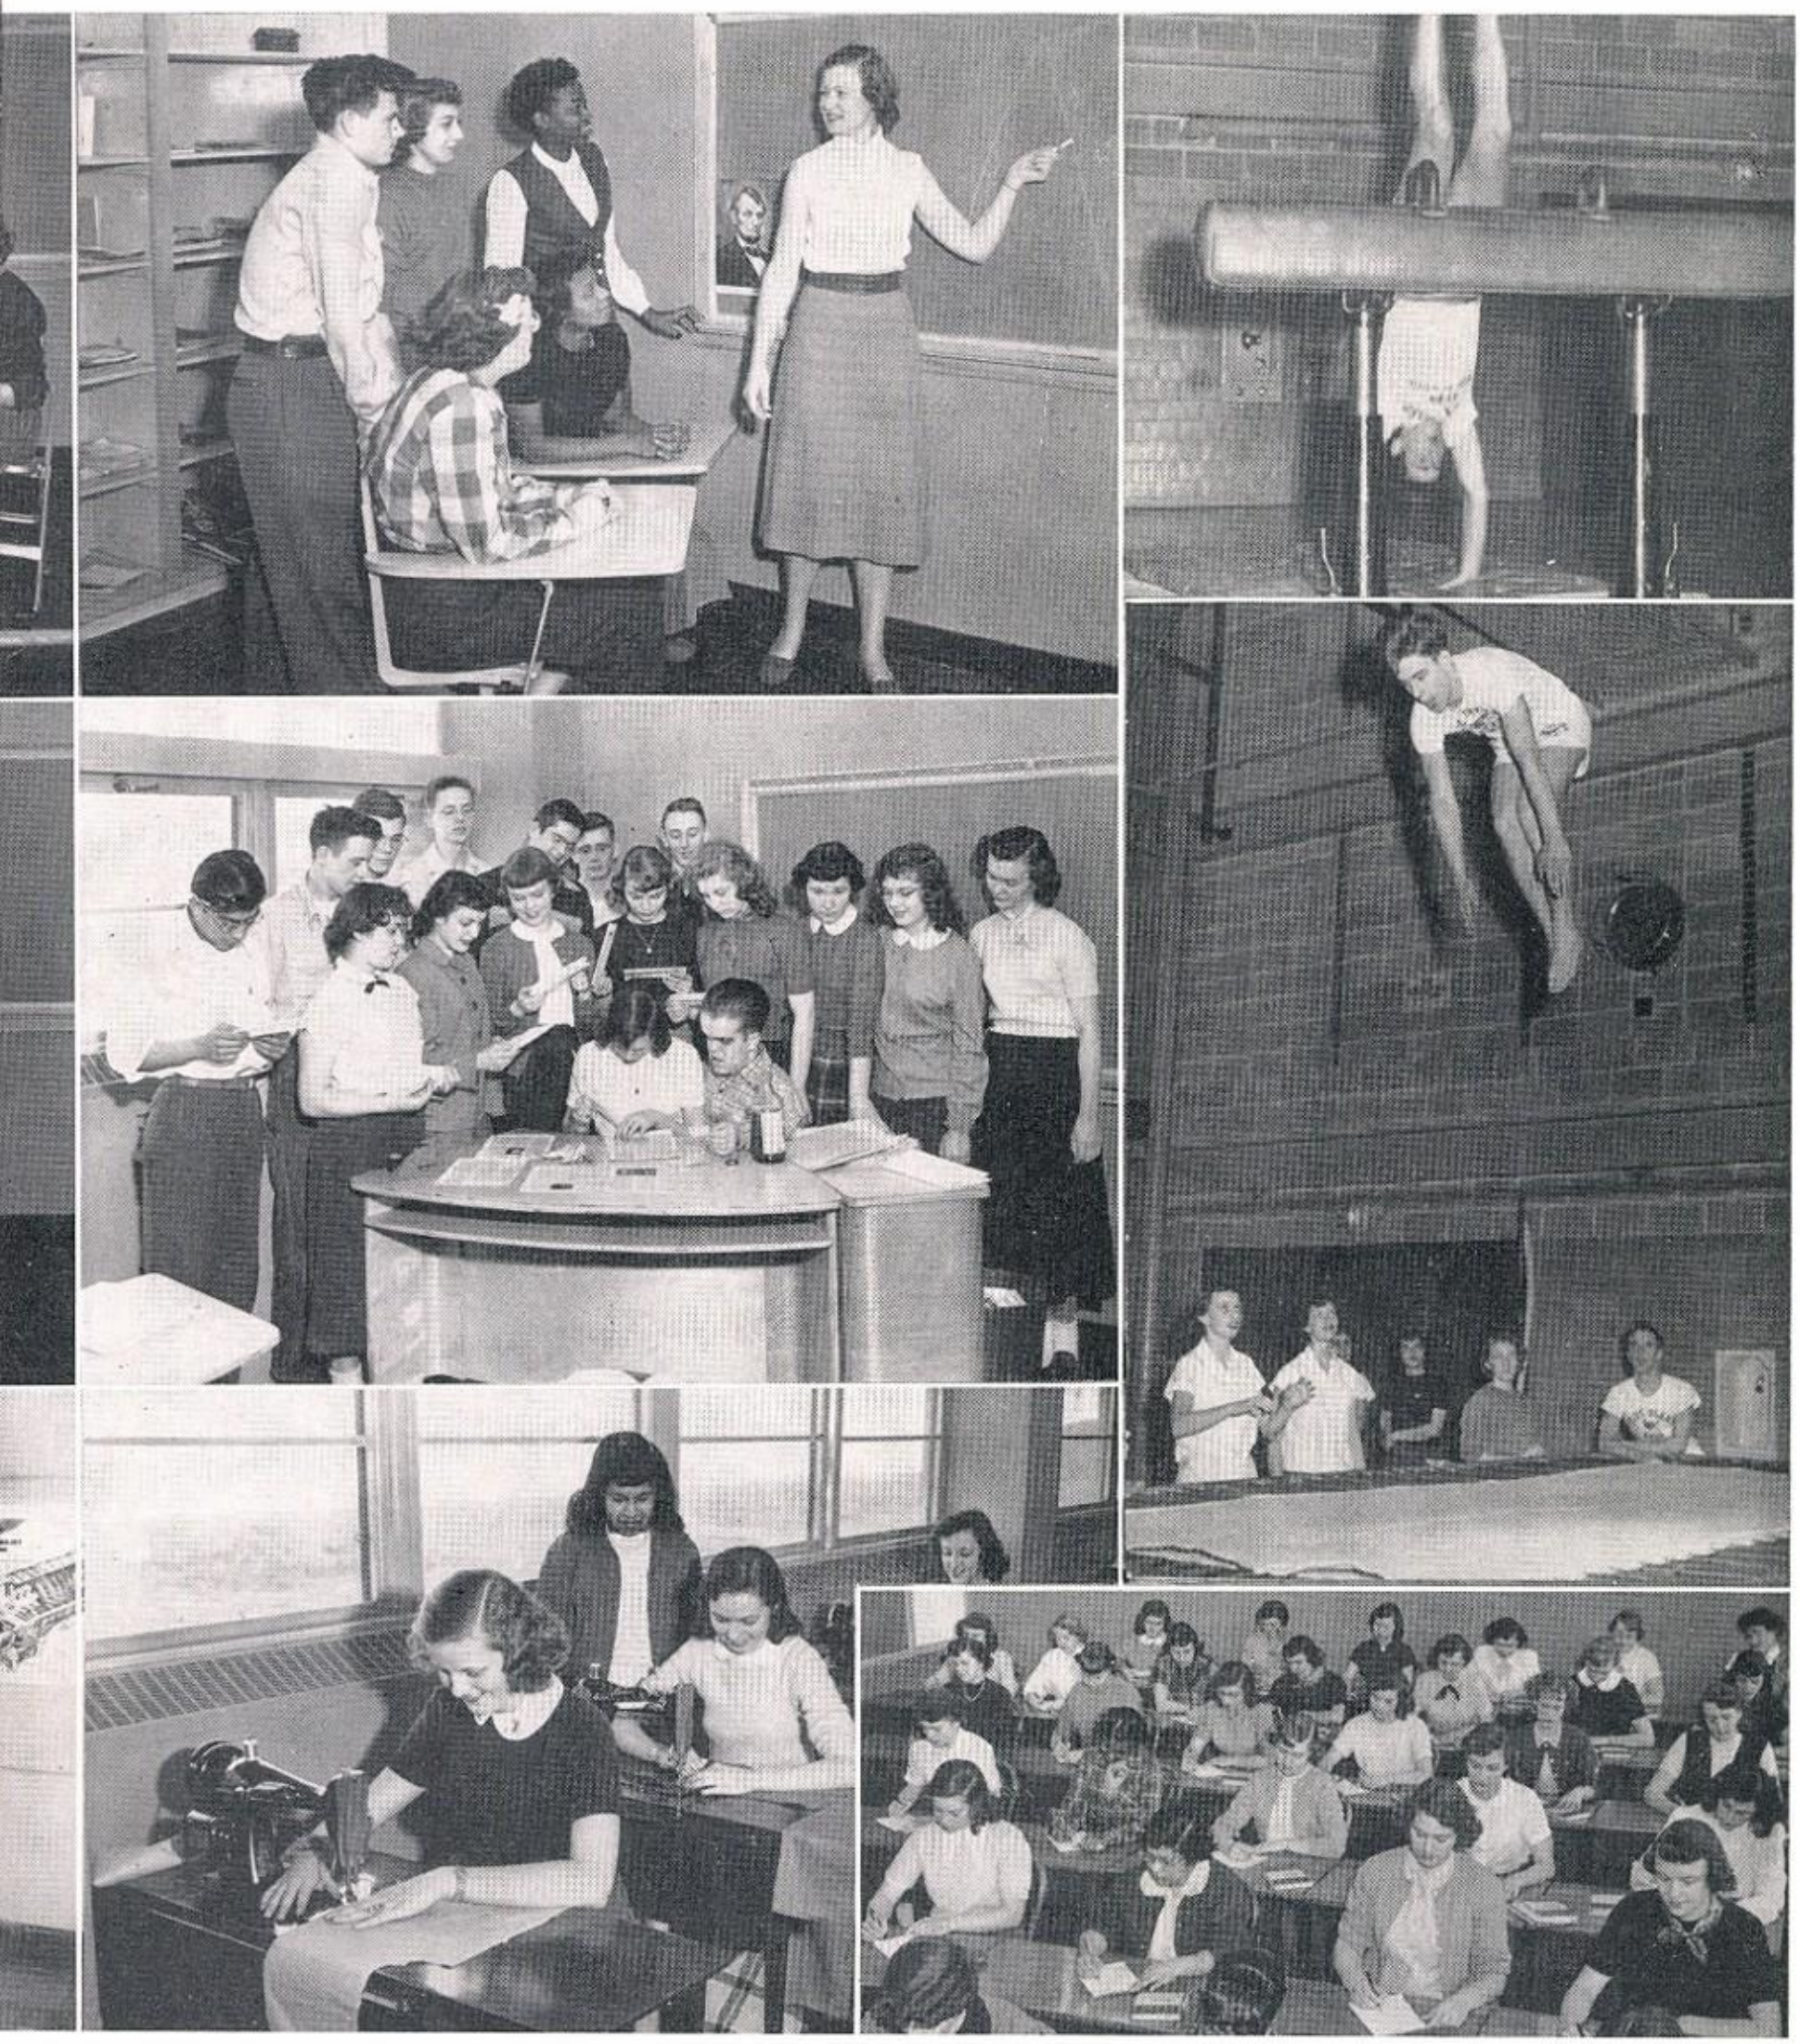
Mr. Ledford's debate squad compiled an admirable record this year. Seated: Richard Gibson, Paul Schrieber, Sally Schee, and Cloette Parker. Standing: Arlene Lievan, Arthur Haase, Coach Ledford, Sylvia Archer, and Cary Wallace.

The first string varsity debaters were Parker, Schee, Wallace and Archer.

Individual speech contestants working under Mr. Ledford's direction this year have been, (seated): Kay Burmeister, Betty Martignetti, Toni Cassaretto, Susan Sollenbarger. Standing: Gloria Woike, Norma Schuemann, Ronald Schultz, Caryl Damm, Cloette Parker.

Telling other members of the newly organized Hunting and Fishing Club about the big one that got away is Carl Gester, with his rod and reel. Mr. Hill is the sponsor of this group at Old Main.

COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL



Students in Dramatics get an explanation of plot from Miss Peck. Seated: Florence Jackson and Elizabeth Brown. Standing: Earl Johler, Carol Barnett, Beverly Harvey.

The seventh period Journalism class paste up proof for the next copy of The Red and White.

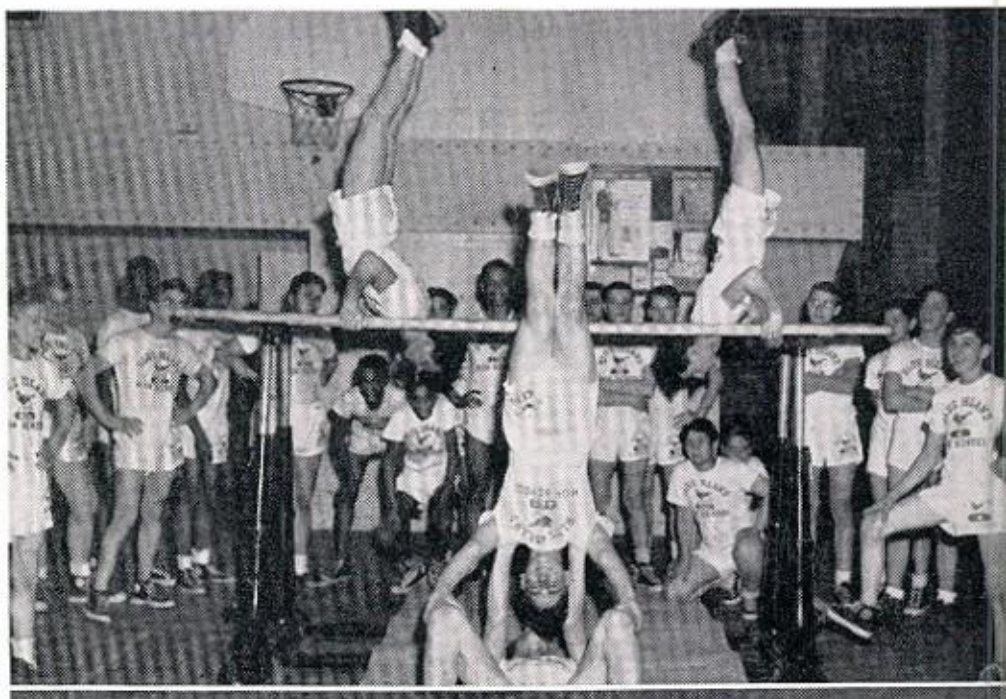
Virginia Elliott, Frances Kasprak, Camilla Guerra, and Betty Reece make a busy foursome at the machines in homemaking.

Jack Caple on the trampolin and Tom Radeke, with a hand stand, show their skill in physical education classes.

These students are taking down dictation in shorthand.

BOYS' PHYSICA

The freshmen and sophomores at Old Main are full of vim, vigor, and vitality!



On the mat Bobby Johler and Wayne Stelter, and on the bars Ray Mueller and Bernard Hauger put on a demonstration for part of one of Mr. Schultz's large classes.

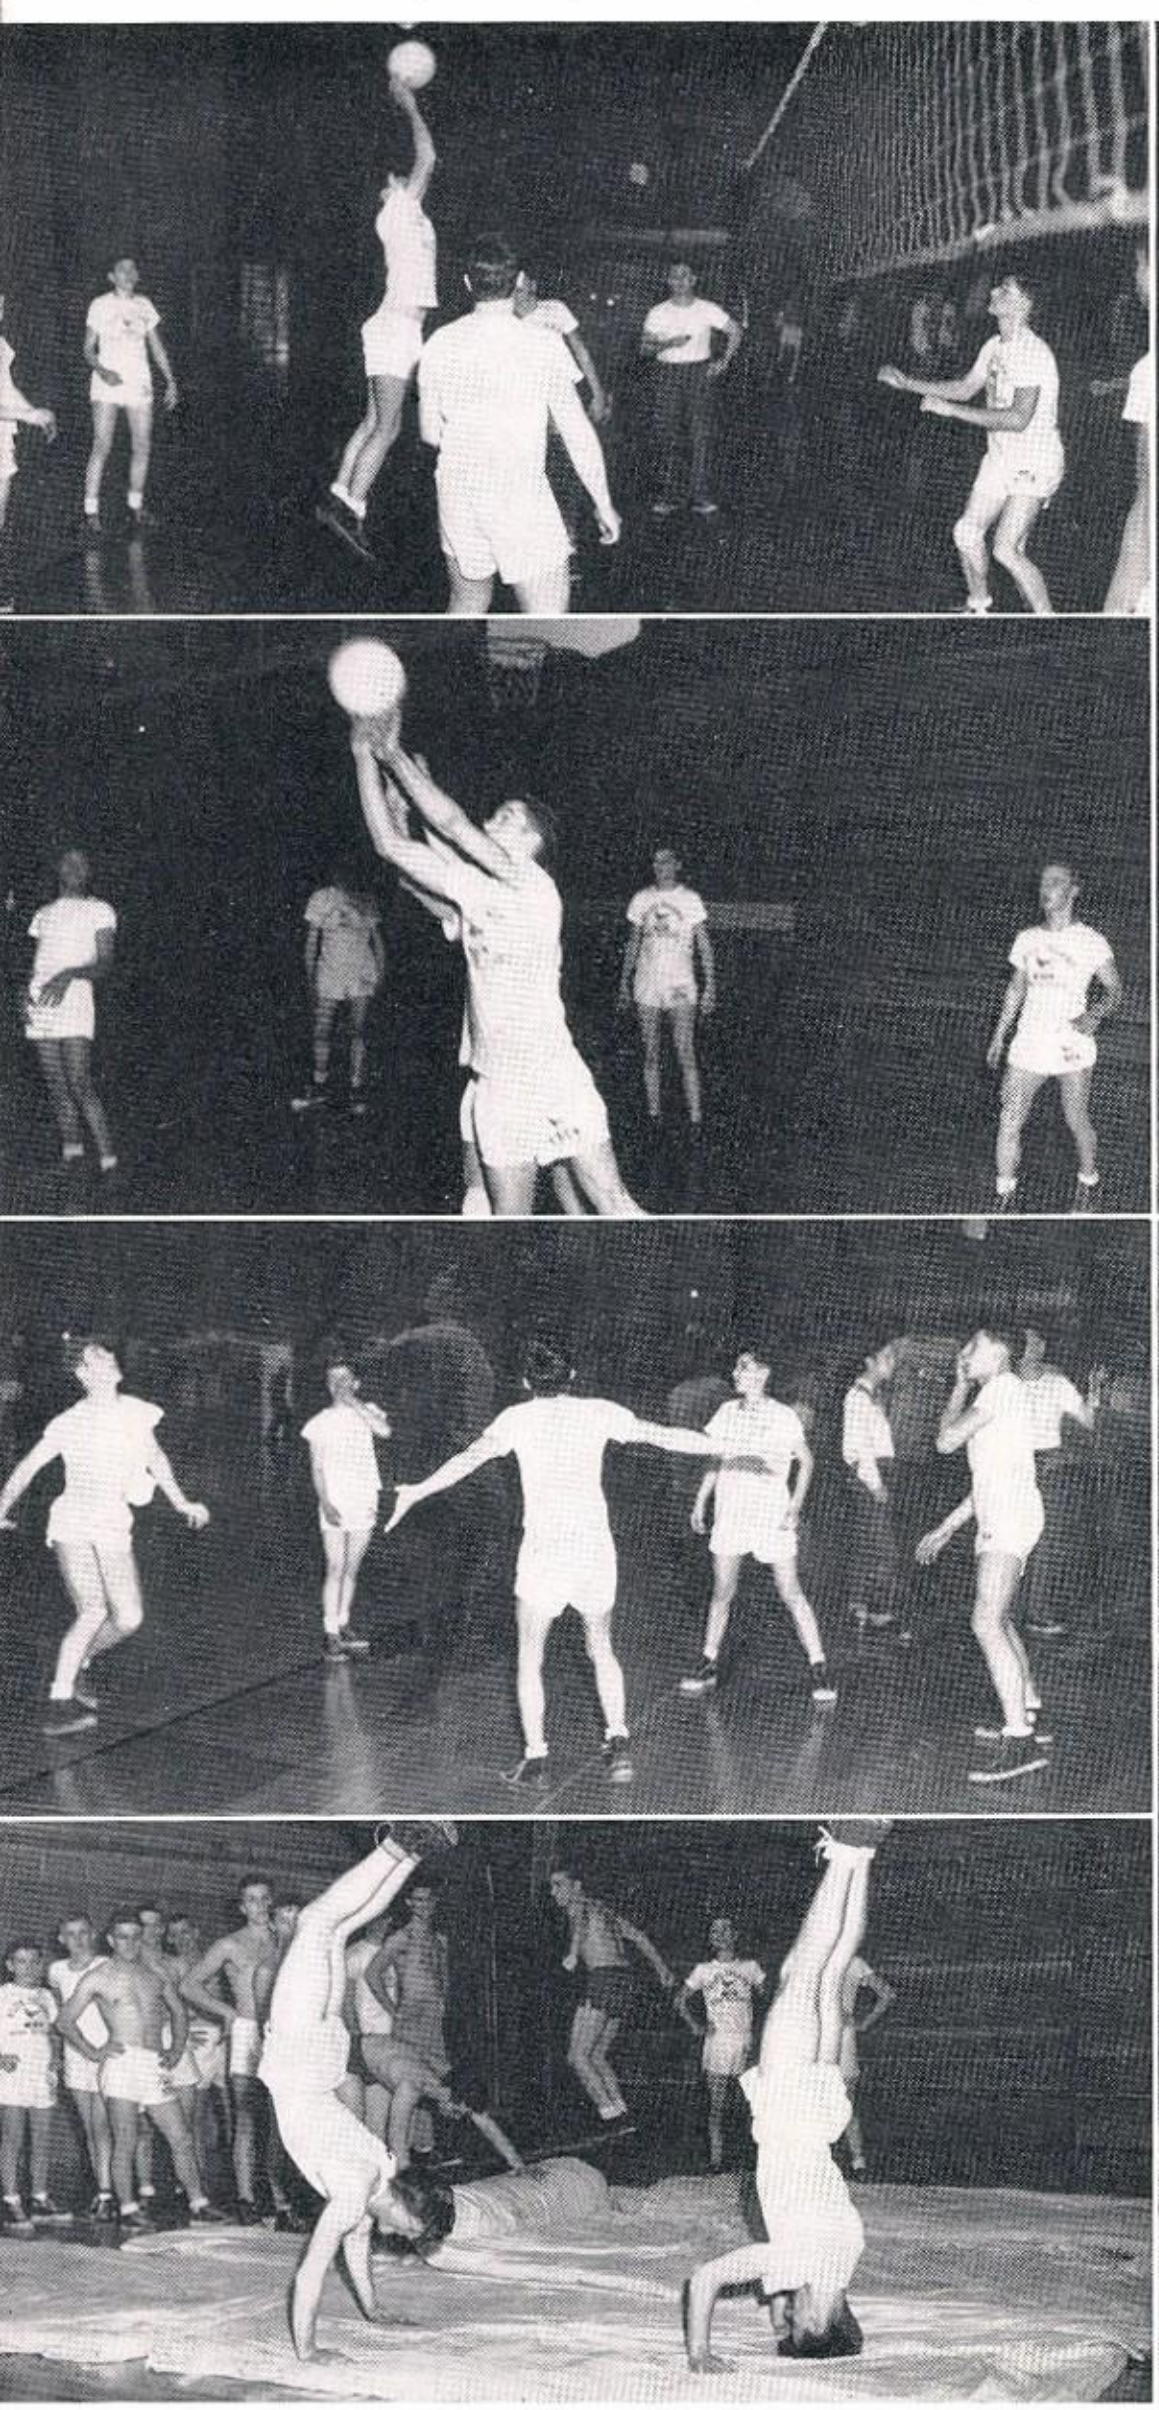
"It's a - one and a - two an' . . . " Here the boys start that enjoyable exercise, the push-up.

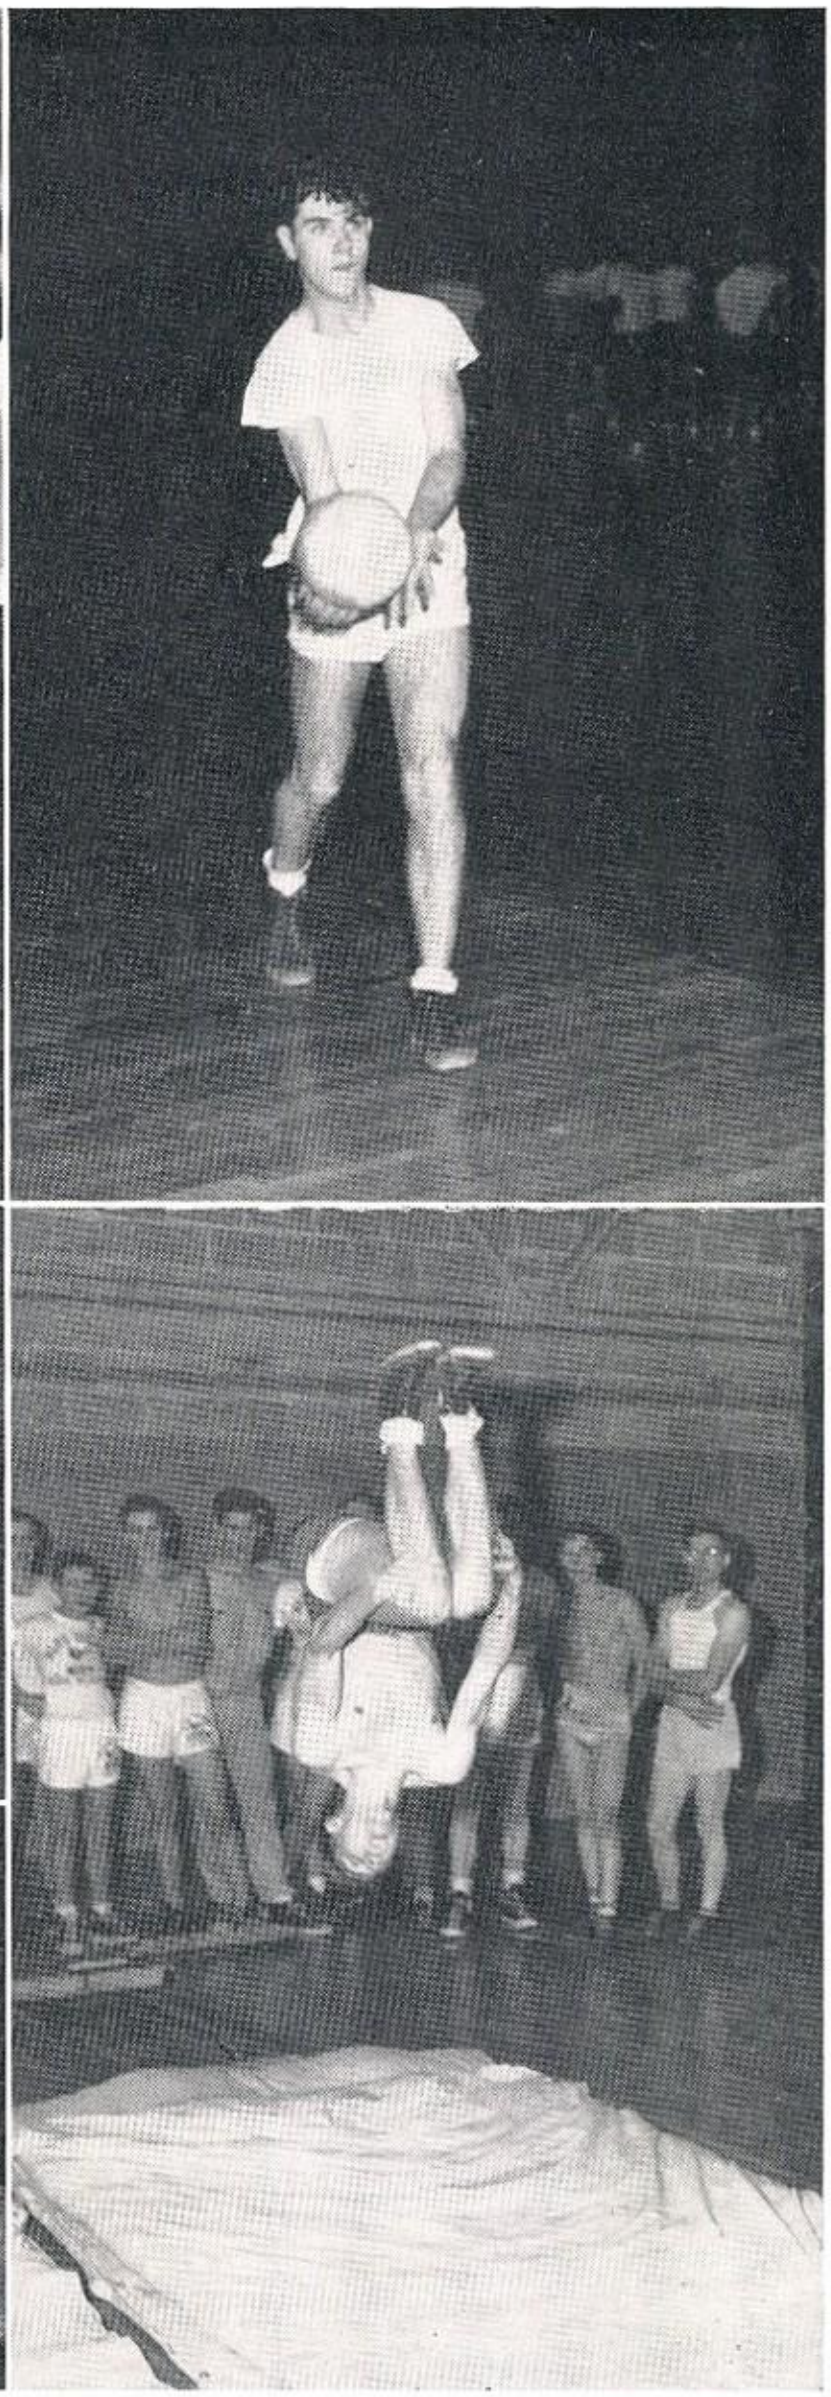
Dick Sterling demonstrates his rope climbing ability for the admiration of his classmates.

The fellows build a pyramid under the watchful eyes of Mr. Schultz. John Basile, at the top, really trusts his classmates!

EDUCATION CLASSES

At the Campus Building classes, volleyball is a favorite. Boys in Mr. Gutches' classes have some hot contests.





Head stands and flips take some of the experts' time in Mr. Eberhart's classes.

Working for the Good of All Students

Student Secretaries Aid Principals

Georgia Nemeth and Earlene Witcher keep records for Mr. Ames.

Mr. Frobish uses these girls to assist in the work of the general office at Old Main. Phyllis Santeford, Norma Steinhart, Shirley Weber, Martha Keeshan, Sandra Rettke, Carol Benck, Patricia Lassa, and Norma Flanary.

The five other clerks in the freshman principal's office are Barbara Land and Gloria Michulak (seated): and Betty Kerr, Delores Dekens and Lorraine Muench.

Mr. Ewing checks over the attendance records with Mary Bulow and Julius Orzech.

Mr. Pooler's secretary, Gladys Nilssen, takes some notes on the day's activities.

Students Star in Service for School

This year the huge task of keeping the records for activity ticket sales rested on the very capable shoulders of three people: Jack Heniff and Marianne Eisenhauer, student assistants, and Mr. Blunk, faculty director.

Workroom 311 (Miss Hudson) hit the jackpot this year in the magazine drive. Lawrence Michael, Glenn Miller, Carleton McCollom and Barbara McCollough are runners-up to Marsda Mead (not pictured) who was the high salesman this year. This is the third year in succession that Marsda has placed first.

The Service Club is an organization of senior and junior lettermen, who act as ushers and help with the sale of concessions at basketball games.
Row 1: Dan Corradino, Jack Heniff, Jim Marcheschi, Bob Kough, Al Dell, Ron Schultz, Don Alfrejd. Row 2: Julian Petrini, Ralph Draeger, Bob Novicki, Dick Marsh, Gene Conrad, Jerry Vanek, Bob Foster, Dick Erfft. Row 3: Sponsor Mr. Gutches, Howard Gingerich, Jim Bronson, Ken Swanson, Glen Miller, Jack Heuser, Dick Lysholm, Buster White.

The school sales room is a busy place every morning. Here Gale Michael and Barbara Folkers serve the needs of Donna Stortz, Marlene Gorney, and Mary Garber.

The Girls' Club Board was responsible for the wonderful dance, Winter Velvet, held in the Campus Cafeteria on February 2, 1952. Touchdown Trot was another one of their projects. Seated: Dorothy Lawrence, Barbara Land, Pat Feldner, Joan Roll, Louise Klein, Norma Flanary, Regina Gustafson, Janet Ferkens, Margie Farino. Standing: Miss Singleton, the Girls' Club Sponsor, Gail Ebers, Barbara Miller, Lynne Vynalek, Irene Vorpahl, and Joyce Karlstedt.

OFFICE STAFF

Helen Duehr, secretary, Old Main.

Helen Tracy, secretary to Dr. Richards.

Joyce Zuidema, secretary to Mr. Miller.

Ruth Coleburn, receptionist and switchboard operator.

COUNSELING STAFF

Mr. Miller and assistants confer before starting on the day's activities.

Russell M. Miller, Jean Dunnington, Elizabeth Hansen, Mark Simpson, Orville Kessler.

SUGGESTIONS FROM OUR STAFF

Your first position after graduation is important to you because it may set a pattern for others that follow. If you look only at the paycheck you may get in a rut that leads away from your chosen goal. If you take the first job offered just because it comes easily you may be off to a wrong start and lose the time spent on it.

Make a list of the types of work that you would like to do. Then strike out the activities that can be carried on as hobbies or avocations. Next, consider the preparation provided by your school days. Is it adequate? That depends on the character of the work you have chosen to do. You should like to study and should have done top-notch work thus far if you are to succeed in the difficult preparation for a profession.

So! You want a job now! What is next? We urge you not to "pound the pavements" aimlessly pushing door bells. We suggest that you consult an employment agency that is conducted on clean, honest principles by experienced people. You cannot conceive the amount of preparatory work the agency has already done for you by telephone, advertising, mail campaigns, and personal contacts in locating suitable positions for the right people.

We enjoyed knowing you.
best of luck always
Mr. B.

Dear Toby-
You've been a swell pal and fellow classmate.
It's been swell
knowing you through our high school days
Hope we can meet
get together sometime
after we graduate.
Love
Judy

Toby,
It's been swell
knowing you all these years. Seems like yesterday when we were sure graduation was so far away. Best of luck Always -
Mary Ann - Barb Sallee

Best of luck
in everything you do.
Julian

To a nice girl who I know
for along time
Don't die - I know
it. Lots of luck
to you always
Love Cathie

Best Wishes to a really swell girl. Good Luck next year in college.
Jim B.

Dear Toby
Good luck to a real swell
classmate - It's been fun — Gym + Trig. Don't get pushed off any Jason Cliffs
Lots of Love

Toby,
Here we are in English class again. How many years is this, now?
Anyway, it's been lots of fun. Here's wishing you the best of everything.
Julie
Gastiger

Dear Toby,
May you have the best of Luck and Happiness
in the future.
Irene Vorpahl

Toby
I'm real glad you changed school and came to B.I. Best Wishes
Nancy
Gustafson

Dear Toby,
You're a wonderful friend. Thanks for helping me in Trig.
Always stay just the way you are.
Harriet Schleder

Dear Toby -
Even though I have not really
known you well,
I hope you gain all in life that you intend to obtain.
